About DFLI

The Center for Nonprofit Management at Stonehill College (CNM) offers exceptional and motivated Stonehill College students a unique program aimed at developing future nonprofit leaders. For students interested in developing fundraising skills, DFLI offers training modules at the Center for Nonprofit Management, initial boot camp, and Spring Semester cross-departmental training in the Advancement Division at the College, which prepares DFLI Interns to be candidates for summer internship or job placements at area nonprofit organizations.

The following questions will help us to better anticipate what your internship or job needs will be the summer following the DFLI program. Please answer as best as you can at this time.

Would you be able to accept an internship or job opportunity in the Stonehill College or greater Boston area following the completion of the DFLI program (Summer 2012)?

YES NO

If no, where do you plan or prefer to reside during this upcoming summer?

Do you have any fields of interest or specific organizations in mind for your summer internship/job placement? (Ex. education, health care, youth programs etc.)

Seniors ONLY: What are your immediate plans upon graduation from Stonehill?

The Center for Nonprofit Management will support seniors through the job search process. Should a senior prefer to be placed in a summer internship, CNM is happy to support the senior through this process, too.
