

World History/East Asia: The History Department at Stonehill College invites applicants for an assistant professor, tenure-track appointment in World History to begin August 2010. The field is open but scholars with a specialization in the history of China, Japan and East Asia are strongly encouraged to apply. The successful candidate will have Ph.D. in hand at the time of appointment. The position includes generous faculty development funds for the support of research and professional travel.

Application materials should include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation and dossier. Please submit them electronically to Wendy Hanawalt at whanawalt@stonehill.edu, under the subject line World History Search. Any materials that cannot be submitted electronically should be mailed to Wendy Hanawalt, World History Search, Stonehill College, 320 Washington St., Easton, MA 02357. The application deadline is November 1, 2009. Please email any inquiries to Professor Kevin Spicer at kspicer@stonehill.edu. Finalists will be brought to campus after a first round of interviews at the Annual Meeting of the AHA in January 2010.

Stonehill is a selective Catholic college located near Boston on a beautiful 375-acre campus in Easton, Massachusetts. With a student-faculty ratio of 13:1, Stonehill faculty engages 2,350 students through 72 rigorous academic programs in the liberal arts, sciences, and pre-professional fields. Stonehill is committed to supporting innovative teaching, interdisciplinary learning, and active faculty and student research.

Applicants who will enrich the diversity of the campus community are strongly encouraged to apply.

Stonehill College is an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity.