This course is designed to help supervisors and managers understand how employment laws work in the real word and how they affect their everyday duties. Learn how to recognize situations that pose a risk to your organization and how to respond appropriately.

Learning objectives:

- Walk away with a clear understanding of how to manage positive colleague relations and maintain legal compliance
- Get a complete review of the most commonly encountered Federal and State Labor Laws that affect employers
- Share stories, engage in dialogue with peers and gain practice to be able to apply Federal and State employment laws and policies accurately

Register today!

To register, please visit:
www.stonehill.edu/x11979.xml

Tuesday, February 28, 2012
9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Brocktonian Room, CNM

The cost of this training session is $25.00/person

Please mail your check, payable to:
Center for Nonprofit Management
Stonehill College
320 Washington Street
Easton, MA 02357

Managers at all levels are constantly challenged to do more with fewer employees, to motivate diverse groups of people, and to face up to tough people problems in their workforces. An important key to managers’ success is accomplishing these goals while protecting themselves and their companies from legal liability.

Presenters will include:

- Ray Fuerschbach
  Senior Vice President for Human Resources
- Maria Harris
  Vice President, Director of Employment and Colleague Relations
- Martha Engstrom
  Vice President in the Human Resource Department
- Michael Shipman
  Vice President, Director of Talent Development
- Melissa Gravellese
  Employment Officer

February BreakFACTS:

Sound Practices in Managing Your Human Resources
Facilitated by members of Rockland Trust