Gender Based Misconduct Policy

Person who may be the victim can report to:

- Campus Police 508-565-5555
- Residence Life 508-565-1290
- Student Affairs 508-565-1363

What happens next?

- If criminal investigation is not requested:
  - Title IX Investigation Process Begins
  - Conversation w/Title IX Investigator(s)

- If criminal investigation is requested:
  - Conversation w/Campus Police & w/Title IX Investigator(s)

During this time, the person who may be a victim, witness(es), and accused student(s) will be interviewed by a trained Title IX Investigator. A recommendation will be to the Dean of Students who can accept, decline, or modify the recommendation.

- Outcome meeting w/Dean of Students
- Potential Appeal

Resources: The Hill Book—SHARE 508-565-1331—Counseling Center 508-565-1331
Gender Based Misconduct Policy

For the Accused Student(s):

What happens next?

If criminal investigation is not requested:
- Title IX Investigation Process Begins
- Conversation w/Title IX Investigator(s)

During this time, the person who may be a victim, witness(es), and accused student(s) will be interviewed by a trained Title IX Investigator. A recommendation will be to the Dean of Students who can accept, decline, or modify the recommendation.

If criminal investigation is requested:
- Conversation w/Campus Police & w/Title IX Investigator(s)

Outcome meeting w/Dean of Students
- Potential Appeal

Resources: The Hill Book—SHARE 508-565-1331—Counseling Center 508-565-1331

Campus Police 508-565-5555
Residence Life 508-565-1290
Student Affairs 508-565-1363