Led by Roots and Wings, this session is geared towards supporting small nonprofits in their continued efforts to break down their strategic plan into bite-size pieces that are easily executed.

You will explore how to:

- Prioritize and break goals into manageable action steps
- Utilize and maximize resources you already have
- Raise funds and support using traditional community organizing tools

October 17, 2014

9am-12pm
(8:30am registration)

$25 per person

Brocktonian Room

16 Belmont Street
Easton, MA 02357

REGISTER TODAY!

About the Facilitators

Tabitha May-Tolub, Co-Founder and CEO

Tabitha has been in the field of Youth Leadership Development for nearly 20 years. She has received extensive training in the areas of communication, mentorship, diversity engagement, peer mediation, leadership development, facilitation, dialoging, anti-bias and primary prevention education. She has worked in public schools, community-based programs and non-profit organizations with youth of all ages, parents, teachers and mentors from all over the country.

Karin Firoza, Co-Founder, Training and Consultation

Karin oversees and coordinates Youth Leadership Programs in the Greater Boston area and coordinates Youth LEAD's annual TIDE Conference. As a proud active member of the Boston Muslim community, Karin plays a key role in the identity and leadership development of Muslim teens in the community.

For more information, call 508-565-1856 or email infnonprofit@stonehill.edu.