57-1811  It's Not Town Water
July 19, 1957

So many calls did selectman Edward C. Lindelof, 511 Park street, Stoughton, receive the past week when he watered his lawn during "off" hours that he was forced to put up a sign announcing the water was "not town water" but is supplied by a pump attached to driven wells. As a result, Mr. Lindelof can water his lawn anytime without drawing from the Stoughton water supply.

57-1821_1 Mrs. Perry July 22, 1957

Down in Halifax (Mass.) lives a rather remarkable lady who despite her 92 years is intensely active and, among other things, prides herself on her ability to bake bread- good, old-fashioned bread of the kind seldom made in modern homes. Two or three times a week, Dinah Perry, 92, kneads the dough, carefully arranges it in a pan and places it in the oven to bake. Mrs. Perry, who lives with her two daughters, Mrs. Alex J. King, and Mrs. B. Mabel Renshaw, on South Street, Halifax, gives "hard work" as we know it a key to her longevity. She does all her housework, reads, cooks, and acts the part of one much younger. And, she says, "I've never had a sick day in my life."

57-1863  Accident - North Cary + East Ashland streets

One slightly injured in Montello Crash, One person complained of minor injuries as a result of a collision between two cars at the intersection of North Cary and East Ashland streets at 6:55 P.M. Tuesday. Miss Dorothy Hunt, 14, of 79 Waldo street told Patrolmen McCarthy and Farewell that she sustained bruises of the back and head, and she would be examined by her physician. The officers said she was a passenger in a car operated east on East Ashland street by John F. Doody, 52, of the same address. Other passengers in the Doody car were listed as Mrs. Doody, 47, and their daughter, Frances, 14. Police said the other car operated north on North Cary street by Robert Chandler, 52, of 104 Cherry street, Whitman. A passenger in the latter car was identified as Ida Chandler, 27.

57-1864  Accident Warren Avenue and Winthrop Streets  March 16, 1957

Driver arrested after crash. Three police cruiser-ambulances were dispatched to Warren avenue and Winthrop street shortly before 3:30 Saturday afternoon after four emergency calls had been received at head-quarters by Deck officer Edmond J. O'Leary concerning a two-car head-on collision at the intersection. Eugene Davis of Milwaukee, Wis., currently residing in Hyannis, operator of one of the vehicles involved, who police say, was arrested by patrolmen Sharon and Roach. He was unable to leave his machine until police arrived on the scene, one of these doors on his auto having been sprung as a result of the impact. In order to free him from the car, Patrolman Roach forced open the door. Atty. Eben G. Townes appeared in Brockton District court for Davis today, stating that his client was a patient of Brockton Hospital and unable to appear. Davis was charged with drunkenness, operating under the influence, operating to endanger and driving without a license in his possession. Judge Kupka continued the case to March 25 to set a date for the trial. Mrs. Josephine Kelley, 43, of 630 Ash street, identified by police as the operator of the other car involved in the collision was taken by patrolmen Dodero and DeChristopher to Brockton Hospital where she was treated for a laceration of the forehead and back injuries. Her two children, John, nine years, and Nancy, six, who suffered minor injuries and a shaking up were taken to the hospital by a neighbor. Force of the impact, police say, drove the Kelley car into a parked machine by the side of the road, registered to an Alice M. Butler, 15 Martland avenue. Traffic at the scene and the investigation was handled by Patrolmen Ruggiera and Varrano.

57-1865  Accident Brockton Avenue  May 12, 1957

Brockton Avenue, Abington

Two accidents occurred but only one person claimed injuries during Monday afternoon's rain. Another minor accident took place after the storm. Edward Ubertis, 19, of 71 West Chestnut street, complained of injuries to his left arm and shoulder and loose teeth, but was discharged after treatment at Brockton Hospital. Ubertis was a passenger in a car involved in a collision with another car in front of 256 Howard street. The operator was Joseph M. Grusso, 20, of 4 Florence street, operator of the other car was Lawrence F. Allen, 43, of 1022 Warren avenue. Both cars had to be towed from the scene. Ubertis was taken to the Brockton Hospital by Patrolman Joseph Upton. The accident was investigated by Patrolmen Ralph Clark and Alfred Sharon.

57-1867  Accident Hanover-Rout 3
July 24, 1957

3 Injured in Accident in Hanover, A Dorchester man was hospitalized and two women were slightly injured, when the car in which they were riding went out of control on Dead Man's Curve, Washington street, Route 3, shortly after 7 Wednesday evening, side-swiping a guardrail, and hit a tree. Edward Costello, 28, of 333 Genoa avenue, Dorchester, received severe lacerations of the scalp and was admitted to the South Shore Hospital. Also taken to the Hospital were Miss Margaret E. McElney, 21, of 52 Bailey street, Dorchester, and Miss Barbara Walton, 24, of 132 Jaffrey street, Weymouth, both suffered cuts and bruises and were released. According to the police the car was operated by Miss McElney, who said she was forced off the highway by two cars coming in the opposite direction, one occupying the right hand lane. All were treated at the scene by a passing doctor and then by cruiser to South Shore Hospital. The accident was investigated by Patrolmen Thomas Axon, Russell Beard and Wendell Blanchard, under the direction of Police Chief John W. Stodard. Also assisting were Asst. County Identification Officer William Blanchard, Norwell Parolmen Baldwin, Molla and Cavanaugh and State Trooper Rizzo of Norwell Barracks.

These are Busy Days for Her

For Miss Mary E. Bulman, contagious disease nurse at the Brockton health department, city hall, the telephone has been ringing constantly, lately because of people calling to inquire about Asiatic flu vaccine. Says Miss Bulman: "Dr. Bolis G Asiaf is still awaiting word from The State Department of Health but as yet it is not available except through private sources. As soon as we obtain further information through the state and national health offices, we shall pass the information along."

Little Boy Lost in Halifax

The first day of school had its woes Wednesday afternoon for Leslie H. Worsham, six, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Howard Worsham, Plymouth Street, Halifax. He's telling about it, above, to Mrs. Henry L. Hayford of Kingston where he was finally called for by his mother. It seems that Leslie, though wearing a tag designating his name, could not tell school bus driver Charles A. Angus of Halifax where he lived as he was being taken home from school in Plymouth. Mr. Angus didn't want to let Leslie out in Halifax alone, fearing a possible mishap and neither could he wait to discover his identity since he had commitment to return to Kingston for Silver Lake pupils. The result, Leslie had an additional ride to Kingston where he waited with Mrs. Hayford until his mother was finally notified and there ensued a tearful reunion.

T'was Dry in '78

At least that is what Bernard T. Gothage, 34, Skinner street, learned today when he discovered an Oct. 17, 1878 copy of the Brockton Weekly Gazette while tearing down a barn at the home of Edmund R. Leonard, 121 Belcher avenue said the Gazette: "The Storm of wind and rain last Saturday was the severest for years, though fortunately it was affended with no great amount of damage in its vicinity. About 4 inches of rain fell, which besides filling up the long exhausted cistems, did not a little to replenish the wells, streams and ponds."
Large baskets of gladiolus and white pompoms, and lightened candles in candelabra formed a pretty setting for the ceremony in which Miss Anne Marie Nilsson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Chase of 95 Belair street, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Covenant Congregational Church. Rev. Axel Bergstedt, pastor emeritus, who officiated at the brides christening and confirmation, performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Wallace I. Starratt. The double rings service was used. Ribbons decorated the pews.

Ten persons, five women, four men, and one child, were taken by police to the Brockton Hospital within 45 minutes Tuesday afternoon after two separate accidents at Belair and Prospect Streets. Personal injuries were not serious, but there was a considerable amount of property damage to the four cars involved and all had to be towed to a garage. The first accident occurred shortly after 2:30 when police said, a car operated by Frank Maclsaac, 54, of 25 Ripley Road, Belmont, traveling westerly on Prospect Street, was in collision with an auto operated northerly on Belair Street, by Eleanor L McMackin, 44, of 34 Herrod Avenue. Both drivers were taken to the Brockton Hospital. Maclsaac complained of a back injury and the woman had cuts, bruises, and possible internal injuries. The two operators were held at the Hospital for X-Rays. All other persons involved were discharged after treatment. Riding in the McMackin Car were Mrs. Lucy M Bruce, 73, of 64 Farrington Street, who had a severe bruise and cut on the head, and Mrs Augusta Edlund, 71, of 58 Sheridan Street, North Easton, who has head and face injuries. Mrs Edlund is the mother of Atty. George F Edlund. Passengers in the Maclsaac car who went to the hospital were John C Engelhorn, 51, of 409 Marlborough Street, Boston, who complained of injuries to his left side and ribs, and James D Foley, 67, of 88 Washington Street, Brighton, who has back and rib injuries. The injured were taken to the Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen Edmund O’Leary, Bronislaw Lucas, Joseph Upton and John Sweeney. The accident was investigated by Patrolmen Walter Carlson and John Burns. Thomas Tomoney, 129A Centre Street, Dorchester, another passenger in the Maclsaac car, did not claim injuries at the time.

57-2851  Stoughton, Sharon, and Easton Firefighters  November 10, 1957
Stoughton, Sharon, and Easton Firefighters combined efforts Sunday evening to quell huge farmhouse fire on Bay Road just over the Easton-Stoughton line in Sharon. Above, volunteer firefighter Donald L. Kelley and chief Frederick H. Pye of the Stoughton fire department discusses blaze which leveled deserted building. The fire had such a fast start that the house was a mass of flames by the time Stoughton, first apparatus on the scene, reached the area. The vivid light attracted motorists from all three towns to the spot.

Baskets of white flowers, palms and lighted candles in candelabras decorated the South Congregational Church Sunday afternoon for the ceremony in which Miss Nancy Hathaway Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Bishop of 1159 Main Street, became the bride of Kenneth Russell Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Porter of 14 Portland Street in one of the loveliest weddings of the season. The pastor, Rev. David B. Johnston, officiated at the double ring service at 3 o'clock. The bride had her cousin, Miss Jean Moulton, as maide of honor, Mrs. Richard Cudmore, cousin of the bride; Miss Therese Proulx and Miss Carolyn Mellman, all of this city, served as bridesmaids. The bridegroom's cousin, Samuel Sakells of this city, performed the duties of best man, and the ushers included Louis Peloquin of Halifax, Robert Sammons of Bridgewater; and Richard Gaye of Stoughton. Traditional wedding music was played by church organist, and Francis J Schulte was the soloist. The pews for the family were marked with small old-fashioned bouquets. The bride was lovely in an exquisit gown of imported French rose point lace and gossamer tulle, fashioned with a portrait neckline, long wristpoint sleeves and basque bodice. The full, bouffant hoop skirt with tier upon tier of lace over tulle terminated in a court train. A lace plateau hat held in place the bride's triple tier veil of imported french silk illusion, and she carried a white Bible with an orchid and stepanotis. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were gowned in peony pink velveteen, ballerina-length styled with bateau neckine, cap sleeves and cummerbund waist of matching slipper satin with full flared skirt. They had matching satin slippers and wore matching velveteen pill box hats with white ermine tails and carried white ermine muffs with pink carnations. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bishop chose a sheath style cocktail dress of peacock peau stain and velveteen in a peacock shade, with an orchid corsage. Mrs. Porter, the bridegroom's mother was attired in a mauve lace sheath with pink feathered hat and white accessories, and she had an orchid corsage. The reception was held at the Walk-Over Club in a setting of cut flowers. A catered buffet luncheon was served and an orchestra played for dancing. Mrs. Marilyn Dunnington was in charge of the guest book. Mr and Mrs. Porter left on a wedding trip to Niagra Falls and Canada. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High School, class of 1954, and is employed at the Goddard Hospital in the office department. She is a majority member of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls, and is a member also of the Junior Women's Club and the South Congregational Church. Mr. Porter, a graduate of Brockton High School, presently serving in the US Navy on the aircraft carrier USS Wasp. Before entering the service he was employed by a local chain store. He is a member of the First Baptist Church.

Middleboro Gets Trophy

The permanent Lions Club trophy was presented Middleboro High School Thursday night, in recognition of its win over Bridgewater. The presentation was made at the Bridgewater High School football dance. Left to right, Henry E. Battis, Middleboro athletic director; Joseph A. Masi, Coach; Charles R. Varney, Bridgewater coach; Herbert W. DeVeber, representing the Lions Club; Joseph E. Hurst, president of the Bridgewater Alumni Association; David E. Butler, captain; Middleboro High School team; Charles F. Doyle and Paul D. Scheffler, Bridgewater co-captains; and Lawrence F. Folloni, Bridgewater athletic director.
St. Margaret's Church was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding this morning when Miss Alice Marie Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Owens of 167 Copeland Street, became the bride of Cornelius Paul McCreven, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCreven of 25 Highland Avenue, Arlington. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Joseph L. Dunn, prior to a nuptial mass at 10 o'clock for which the altar was decorated with Chrysanthemums. The bride had her sister-in-law, Mrs. Everett L Owens, Jr., of this city as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Beggan of Arlington, niece of the bridegroom, and Mrs Ralph L Owens, Jr., of Eastondale. Patrick McCreven of Charles town performed the duties of best man for his brother, and ushers were Everett L Owens, Jr., brother of the bride, and John McCreven of Somerville, brother of the bridegroom. Music for the rites was played by Mrs. William McGowan, church organist, and soloist was Mrs. Josephine Bruno Murphy. The bride's gown was of imported Chantilly lace, fashioned with Sabrina neckline, long wristpoint sleeves, basque bodice and full, bouffant hoopskirt, tier upon tier, terminating in a court train. A matching lace crown encrusted with tiny pearls held in place the bride's waist-length veil of imported French Silk illusion, and she carried a cascade of carnations and stephanotis with orchid centre. The matron of honor and bridesmaids were gowned alike in two-tone nymph green, ballet-length, fashioned with scoop neckline, cap sleeves, empire bodice and full bouffant skirt. They wore matching crowns with shoulder veils and matching slippers, and carried ballerina bouquets. The matron of honor had yellow carnations and the bridesmaids, tow-tone scarlet carnations. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Owens chose a navy dress with lace trim and powder blue satin inserts, and navy accessories. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William Beggan of Arlington, wore navy blue with navy accessories. Both had corsages of camellias. A reception to 125 guests followed at a Campello Inn. Mr and Mrs McCreven left on a three-week wedding trip to Florida and other southern states. The bride was attired for traveling in a beige tweed knitted suit with beige and brown accessories and topper. The couple will reside at 45 Irvington Street on their return. The bride attended Brockton schools and is employed by the Boston Ordnance District at the Army Base. Mr. McCreven attended schools in Charlestown. He also is employed by the Boston Ordnance District.

Richard A. Sankus, 19, of Dutchland Avenue, Brockton, who was but three years old when the Japanese struck Hawaii and the Philipines Dec. 7, 1941, hears the story of that infamous day from one who was there- Chief Hospitalman Charles A. Chace, attached to the Brockton Navy training centre, Montawk Road. Chace was in Manila on the USS Otis when the Japanese attacked and his ship was one of many bombed by the enemy. He expects to retire in April after 20 years service, while Sankus who has been with surface. Division 1-12 the past eight months will begin active duty in January. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sankus.

Bridgewater's favorite School Visitor is Penny

A dog owned by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Belmore, 44 Mount Prospect street, who insists on daily visits to the teacher’s college training school where the Belmore grand children, Maureen J. Marzelli, six, and Kathleen J. Marzelli, seven, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Marzelli, 21 Alden square, South Bridgewater, are enrolled. Penny figures it's much easier to walk the short distance from her home to school than to travel four miles to the home of the children. She has become such a favorite at the school that all the pupils look forward to her visit and she easily picks out Maureen's desk from among the others and sits down underneath it. Above, Maureen, Kathleen, Penny and the other pupils listen to school discussion by the regular teacher, Miss Ruth T. Staupas of Brockton.

Thomas F. Perry, 20, of 241 Copeland street, had a compound fracture of the right leg, possible chest injuries and multiple lacerations and was reported in fair condition this afternoon at Brockton Hospital where he was taken shortly before 9 this morning after the station wagon he was operating crashed into a tree on Grove street, near Spring avenue. Perry was trapped for a short time after the crash which pushed him under the dashboard but was quickly extracted by the police and firefighters. The Station Wagon was facing Westerly after the crash and was on the sidewalk on the South side of Grover street, just a few feet east of Spring avenue. The front end of the Perry car was pushed in with the hood nearly up against the windshield. Part of the chromium rim was found some distance from the tree by police. Perry was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Walter Carison and John Burns and the accident was investigated by Patrolmen Joseph Upton and Jack Sweeney.

Women Flee Abington Fire

Some of the nearly 50 women employees forced to flee fire in the Olsen Machine and Tool Co., North Abington, Tuesday afternoon discuss their plight in the office section of the plant. Left to right, Mrs. John P. Aubert of Hanson, Mrs. Ferris E. Gallion of Brockton, Mrs. Richard C Healey of North Abington, Mrs. Nellie Cunningham of Whitman, Mrs. Dorothy Gardner of Brockton, Mrs. Walter F. Miller of South Weymouth, Mrs. Warren E. Mansfield of Brant Rock and Mrs. Lillian J. LeMoine of Brockton.

Brockton Has Narrow Escape

Ferris Edawrd Gallian, 33, of 29 Marion Street, Brockton, left, tells Firefighter Joseph L. Keefe of Rockland how he was standing but a few feet away when a varnish explosion started a flash fire at Olsen Machine and Tool Co., North Abington. He and some 50 other employees fled from the building.
Cement and Brick Construction

Cement and Brick Construction of the Olsen Machine and Tool Co., North Abington prevented greater damage in the flash fire which destroyed a section of the interior and caused 50 employees to flee Tuesday afternoon. Firefighters from Abington and Rockland, above, use hoseline to douse the smokey blaze.

Deputy Chief Kenneth L. Bates, Jr., of the Abington Fire Department; Arnt Olsen, president, Olsen Machine and Tool Co., and Chief John F Casey of the Abington Fire Department investigated flash fire which forced some 50 employees to flee the building in mid-afternoon.

Among women employees who fled Abington Machine Shop fire, Mrs. Lucia A. Wheeler of Whitman, Miss Elaine M. Crosaman of Brockton, Miss Rita I. Benerides of Hanson and Mrs. Edward L. Horne of North Abington who ran outdoors into rain as flash fire enveloped Abington Plants.

She bet on the Army and lost, so Mrs. William Thomas Yezukevicz, 115 Hovendon Avenue, Brockton, paid the wager by pushing her husband, Chief Machinists' Mate William T Yezukevicz down Hovendon Avenue in a wheelbarrow. Being a former WAC Mrs. Yezukevicz naturally rooted for the army in the recent Army-Navy game, but, having lost, she was a sport and fulfilled her obligation Saturday afternoon, much to the glee of friends and neighbors in the area.

<td>When a young squirrel began breaking crockery in her pantry Monday afternoon, Mrs. Francis L. Noone, 32 Martland avenue, Montello, decided to do something about it- and fast. She called the Brockton police department and got immediate responses from Patrolmen North and Roach. Then she enlisted the aid of carpenters working on the third-floor apartment roof, and William F. Madden, 54 Summer street, Brockton, was the first to succeed in routing the animal. Inset shows intruder hiding behind big bowl on pantry shelf; main picture, Madden, using a broom handle, gets squirrel to leave his corner and depart by a nearby window. C. May Villiers, 75, of 57 Fuller street, was in serious condition with head injuries, a broken hip and lacerations this noon at the Brockton Hospital after being struck by a car at 10:15 while walking in the street nearly in front of her home. Police say the operator, Nancy D. Morris, of 162 Richmond street, told them she was distracted by a puppy riding in the car with her and it caused the car to swerve and strike the woman. The woman was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Joseph O'Leary and Joseph Noonan and Patrolmen Joseph Upton and Jack Sweeney investigated. Police said the car went up over the sidewalk after the accident and the left front headlight was damaged. The injured woman's glasses were knocked off and broken by the impact.

Brockton's Youngest Santa Claus

Brockton's youngest Santa Clause might well be Peter Michael Martin, seven, son of Mr and Mrs Edmund V Martin, 11 Canton Street, who entertained young people as well as others many years his senior at Christmas gatherings in Brockton.

Dramatic Rescue

Dramatic rescue is vividly portrayed in these Enterprise pictures as West Bridgewater police and firefighters strove Christmas Eve to remove Mrs. Jane Freeman, 77 Spring Street, Brockton, from wreckage in which she was pinned when her car struck a tree in front of St. Ann's Rectory, 103 North Main Street.

Using hydraulic equipment from West Bridgewater fire department emergency rescue truck, West Bridgewater Patrolmen Charles D. Anderson and Edwin T. Gibson, Capt. Richard E. Keith, and firefighter Thomas McQuinn pry open shattered car door. In the background, with soft hat and glasses, is Dr. Joseph F. Calitri of West Bridgewater who supervised rescue operations.

Mrs. Freeman is eased out of crushed door by Patrolmen Anderson and Gibson.

Finally freed, she is lifted by Patrolmen Anderson, Fire Chief Antone Souza, Firefighter Howard A. Anderson and Patrolman Gibson.

After first aid by Dr. Calitri, the woman is carried to waiting ambulance by Patrolman Gibson and Patrolman Kenneth S. Copeland of the East Bridgewater police department.

Brockton's New Year Good Wishes

Brockton's New Year Good Wishes are extended by Carolee Dahlborg, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Dahlborg, 647 Main Street, as she looks forward to 1958 today. She's a graduate of Mt. Ida Junior College, Newton Centre, and currently is an assistant librarian at the Brockton Public Library.

Were You In This Line?

This was the scene shortly before 9 A.M. today when last minute 1958 auto sticker seekers lined up along Belmont Street at the Registry of Motor Vehicles office. At one time the Standees stretched from the office to Cottage Street. Top photo, some of the early morning waiters; lower photo general view of the line as it extended along the Belmont Street sidewalk.

Our Granddad's a Judge

December 25, 1957

So say Stephen David Stone, five, and his sister, Linda Susan Stone, three, as they were guests of their grandfather, Judge Harry K Stone of Plymouth County Probate court, Brockton. Noting the interest of his grandchildren in the fact that he was a judge, the jurist today took them on a tour of the court room and explained some of the significance to them. They are the children of Mr and Mrs Hugh David Stone, 164 Hartmann road, Newton, and were guests of their grandparents, Judge and Mrs Harry K Stone, West Elm Street for the Christmas Holiday period.

Miss Mary Riley Becomes Bride of John J Barbone

December 15, 1957

The wedding of Miss Mary Louise Riley, daughter of Mrs. Frances L Riley of Brockton and Pembroke, to John J Barbone of Quincy and Providence R.I., was solemnized Sunday at 3 o'clock at St. Patrick's church. Rev Joseph W Kenny officiated in the double ring ceremony. Attending the bride was Miss Arlene Twomey as maid of honor, bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank McMorrow of Jackson Heights, L.A., Miss Eileen Murphy of Newton and Miss Barbara Morris. Serving as best man was Anthony DiGiacomo and ushers were Laurence A Natarangelo, George Cirillo and Robert Sandonato. Given in marriage by her uncle, C Frederick Reilly of Boston, the bride was attired in a gown of French Chantilly lace and a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white orchids. The bride's attendants were gowned alike in burgundy velvet dresses and tiaras encrusted with pearls. They carried bouquets of pink carnations. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Riley chose a continental blue velvet and a tiara of rose velvet set with pearls. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Barbone, mother of the bridegroom was attired in an Alice-blue gown of peau-de-sole and chantilly lace and she wore a tiara of blue satin set with pearls. Her corsage was also of pink roses. Following the ceremony a reception was held. For their wedding trip to Miami, Fla., the bride was attired in a navy blue dress with mauve-pink accessories. On their return they will reside in their newly built home in Quincy. Mrs. Barbone is a graduate of Brockton High School. She attended Boston university and Mt. Ida Junior College previous to receiving her BS degree from Lesley College in Cambridge. She has been teaching at the Sprague School. She is the niece of School Committee Woman-elect, Atty, Madeline L Reilly of Boston. Mr. Barbone is a graduate of Quincy High School and served four years in the Navy. He is associated in business with his father in Providence.

57-3207  5 Hurt When Cars crash in Brockton  December 27, 1957

Five persons, including a five year old boy and his mother, claimed injury in two separate auto crashes within an hour late Friday afternoon. Four cars were badly damaged. James E Martin, five, of 146 South Main Street, West Bridgewater, was shaken up, and his mother, Edna, 41, received a bruised arm and right knee, while riding in a car driven by John F Martin, 44, authorities said. The Martin auto, traveling south on Warren Avenue, was involved in a collision with a car driven out of Winthrop Street by John A Carlson, 71, of 10 Carroll Avenue, just before 4 P.M. According to report by Patrolmen Thomas Roach and Norman White, Morris Bjorklund, 86, of 10 Carroll Avenue, a passenger in the Carlson car, suffered a lacerated scalp and possible chest injury and was admitted to the Brockton Hospital for observance. Carlson was shaken up by impact, police reported. The injured were taken to the hospital in two cruisers by Patrolmen Carlson, Bruns, Sharon and Edmund O'Leary. All but Bjorkland were released after treatment.

A Quincy man was hurled to instant death and six persons were hospitalized in a three-car crash at the intersection of Rockland Street (route 139) and Columbia Road (route 3) shortly before 1:30 this morning. The toll: James Killian, 22, of 49 California avenue, Quincy dead; Patricia A Lucey, 22, of St George Street, Duxbury, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later transferred to Quincy Hospital; Richard Green, 21, of North Carver, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later transferred to Jordan Hospital, Plymouth; Evelyn M Frazier, 24, of Castle Street, Plymouth, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later released; James J Lyndon, 22, 47 Willard Street, Quincy, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later released; John F Flaherty, 22, 209 Common Street, West Quincy, admitted to South Shore Hospital, later released; Charles F Murphy, 22, 261 Willard Street, Quincy, admitted to South Shore Hospital, later released. Treated for minor injuries: Robert Dobson, 25, of Green Harbor; Mr and Mrs Philip Huntley, 25, of Broadway, Hanover. Albert Parkman, 23, of Duxbury Street, Duxbury, one of the drivers, was unhurt, police reported. According to police Mr and Mrs Huntley, who had been visiting friends in Rockland, were awaiting in their car for the traffic signal light to change at the intersection, when the cars operated by Albert Parkman and Lyndon, approaching on Route 3 from the north, sideswiped each other, knocking Sign Down. The Parkman car was driven off the highway, taking down a traffic sign at the start of the intersection of Route 139, a set of signal lights on a pole in the grass plot which divides the intersection and came to a stop when it collided with the Huntley Car. The car operated by Lyndon continued on for more than 500 feet. Killian was hurled from the wreckage 300 feet from the intersection and death came almost instantaneous according to Dr. Raymond Vinal of Norwell, medical examiner. Police Chief John W Stoddard was assisted by Hanover Patrolmen Thomas Axon, Russell Beard, T Drew Bates and Wendell Blanchard. Through the police radio, cruisers from Rockland, Norwell, Pembroke, and Hanson were quickly dispatched to the scene to take the injured to the South Shore Hospital. Assisting the Hanover Police were Hanson Patrolmen Robert McNamara and Erving Foster, Rockland Patrolmen William McGarry, Alfred Newhall and Richard Packer, the latter dispatching the emergency calls from Rockland Station; Norwell police Chief Kenneth Bradeen, Pembroke Patrolmen Ernest Christie and Robert Morris; State Troopers Richard and Jennings and Leo Sullivan of the Norwell barracks, County Identification. Officer Howard F Levings, Asst. County Identification Officers William Blanchard and Motor Vehicle Inspector John Bellrose. Hanover firemen wet down the area because of the danger of the gasoline. Riding with Lyndon were Flaherty, Murphy and the fatally injured Killian. Riding with Parkman were Dobson, Green, Miss Lucey and Miss Frazier.

In a double ring ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at St. Margaret's Church, Miss Judyth Ann Winn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Winn of 94 Auburn Street, this city, became the bride of Lawrence Henry Kenneally, son of Mrs. Florence Kenneally of 56 Laurel Street, Whitman, and the late Michael Kenneally. The pastor, Rev. Joseph L. Dunn, affiliated at the rites, for which the altar was decorated with bouquets of white pompons. The bride had her sister, Miss Dianne E. Winn, as her only attendant. Everett Ludwig of Whitman, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, performed the duties of best man and the ushers were William Hill and William Burnett, cousin of the bridegroom. Wedding processional and recessional music was played by Mrs. William McGowan, church organist, and the soloist was Miss Patricia Booth. Escorted by her father, the bride was lovely in an exquisite gown of white satin en train, designed with pearl-trimmed collar and long, wrist-point sleeves, with bouffant hoopskirt, fashioned with layers of tulle ruffles with front panel of satin. The bride's chapel-length veil was attached to a headpiece of satin and seed pearls, and she carried a satin-covered Bible with camellias and ribbons entwined with lovers' knots. The maid of honor wore a gown of maoe taffeta and tulle, floor-length, with apron front and bustle back. She had a white ermine headband and muff with tinted maoe camellias. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Winn chose a blue lace sheath dress with satin cummerbund, and matching blue feathered half-hat with petals, mink stole and corsage of pink camellias. Mrs. Kenneally, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in royal blue with black accessories and a corsage of camellias. A reception to members of the immediate families was held at the Hotel Bryant, where a wedding dinner was served. Miss Ann Kenneally had charge of the guest book. The couple left on a one-week wedding trip to New Hampshire, the bride attired for traveling in a light blue wool sheath dress with white satin hat and fur coat. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneally will reside in a newly-furnished apartment at 94 Auburn Street, this city. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High School, class of 1956, and is a former member of the Junior Twentieth Century Catholic Club. She is employed at the Brockton Edison Co. Mr. Kenneally was graduated from Whitman High School with the class of 1949 and served four years with the air force during the Korean Conflict. He is employed locally. He is a member of VFW Post 367, Whitman, and is prominent in Whitman athletics circles. Mr. Kenneally is a comminicant of Holy Ghost Church, Whitman.

A Holbrook woman suffered head injuries late this noon in a collision on West Main street, this town, involving a car which police say she was operating and a heavy truck owned by the M.B. Claff Paper Bow Co. Mrs. Aran A. Ayvas, 641 Plymouth Street, Holbrook, was taken to Brockton hospital by Avon police, was admitted, but information concerning her injuries or condition were not immediately available. Chief of Police Charles L. Mahoney, Jr., who investigated the mishap, said the Ayvas car turned over on one side as the result of the impact. Police lifted the injured woman clear of the wreckage. The left front of Mrs. Ayvas' machine was considerably damaged. The chief said it appeared that the truck, being operated in a southerly direction on West Main Street by Raymond Prodouz, 14 Broad Street, Brockton, met with Mrs. Ayvas' car as it came out of Maple Avenue close to the Legion headquarters. Prodouz was unhurt he said.

Enbankment Collapse  January 27, 1958

Enbankment Collapse due to heavy rains pushed in one of the foundation walls of the new North Junior High on Oak Street, with the result a section will have to be torn down and rebuild, according to the construction company. The earth abutment, above, slid down, pushing against the wall.

Heavy rains plus the pressure from dirt fill caused approximately 100 feet of a 175-foot section of a base foundation on the easterly side of North Junior High School, off Oak Street, to bulge this forenoon. Officials of the L&R Construction Co., from North Reading, assured City Manager Gildea a new section of wall would be replaced with no cost to the city. The cement foundation wall is 14 feet high and 14 inches thick. Construction authorities said no time in the building schedule would be lost as a result of the foundation buckling. Nearly two inches of rain since last Saturday added to pressure of the fill that was deposited against the cement foundation. Ground breaking for the $2,397,402 structure took place last September and Construction has been going on since that time. None of the construction crew members was endangered at any time. Word of the wall buckling was given Supt. Of Buildings Richard E. Samuelson, who was soon on the scene ans surveyed the buckled foundation. In awarding the contract for construction, the L&R Co. was the lowest bidder, submitting a figure of $2,129,787, which was $29,213 lower than the nearest figure of other concerns submitting bids.

58-0230 Two Women Hurt As Autos Crash January 27, 1958

Mrs. Bertha Baker, 52, of 94 Stearns drive, Randolph, passenger in one of two cars which collided shortly after noon at North Warren avenue and Spring Street, was momentarily wedged between the two cars after she was thrown out of the car by the impact. She was able to get out from between the two cars with the assistance of two unidentified men and the operator of the car in which she was riding, Mrs. Harriet H. Mulchy, 43, of 70 Stearns Drive, Randolph. Mrs. Baker was taken to the Brockton Hospital in the veterans' ambulance by fire fighter Cataldo Belmosto. Mrs. Mulchy complained of injuries to her right shoulder and arm, but told police she would seek treatment either at the hospital or from her doctor. Mrs. Baker was still at the hospital for x-rays at press time and it had not been determined if she would be admitted. Operator of the other car, police say, was Harry E. Fuller, Jr., 20, of 23 Hervey Street, who did not claim injuries at the time. According to the reports given police, the Fuller car was going north on North Warren avenue and the Mulchy car east on Sprint Street. Both cars, badly damaged, come to a stop against the sidewalk on the northeast corner of the intersection. In response to an emergency call as a result of the Baker woman being between the two cars, Squad A, Engine 7, Comb 1 and Ladder 1 were dispatched to the accident in addition to the veterans' ambulance, the accident was investigated by Patrolmen Francis Frawley and Arthur Dion.

Campello man became the city's second pedestrian fatality in a week when he was killed by an auto as he walked in the street near his home Saturday night. James A. Leggett, 169 Perkins avenue, was pronounced dead on arrival at the Brockton Hospital after being struck by a car at Perkins avenue and Clinton Street shortly after 7pm. The driver of the car - which was proceeding westerly on Perkins avenue, was identified as Manfred Schutz, 47, of 10 Bristol avenue. Schutz, police said, attempted to stop his car to avoid striking Leggett, but failed. Leggett lived not far from the accident scene. He was rushed to the hospital by Patrolmen Edward Tamulevich and Elie Khoury but was beyond aid. Officials said he suffered a fractured skull broken ribs and right leg. He was pronounced dead by Associate Medical Examiner Raymond T. Vinal. Schutz also lived in the neighborhood of the accident and told police he had just left his home and was driving toward Montello Street when the accident occurred. Patrolman Frank P. Gentile and Sgt. Arthur E. Spillane were joined by registry inspector Robert Ramacorti, Mrs. Kazimera Markol, 74, died Monday night after being struck by a car on North Main street. Mr. Leggett was part owner and president of the Bridgewater Foundry, Inc. He was a member of the Forty Niners Club. He was a veteran of the World War I. Mr. Leggett is survived by his widow, Catherine (Walsh) Leggett; three daughters, Miss Kathleen M. Leggett, a teacher at the Winthrop school, Mrs. Raymond (Phyllis) Daylor and Mrs. Ernest (Barbara) Proacini, Jr., both of Brockton; three brothers, William, G. Maynard and Charles Leggett; five sisters, Mrs. Gordon (Catherine) Williams, Mrs. William (Viola) Stinson, Mrs. Clarence (Alice) McKim, Mrs. Knute (Annie) Northrop and Bertha Leggett; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock from the funeral home, 403 Main Street. A solemn high mass of requiem will be sung in St. Margarets' Church at 9 o'clock, followed by interment in Calvary cemetery.

58-0274 Deep Financial Problem!
February 4, 1958

Main streeters gaped in wonder this morning as two Brink's Bank guards knelt on the sidewalk to peer down a catch basin beside their parked truck at the corner of Main and Church Streets. What Happened? In leaving the truck they had accidentally dropped important keys, including some to the truck itself, down the basin and it took no less than a highway department crew and derrick to retrieve them. The luckless guards, George F. Lemoine, 18 Fred Street, left, and J. Dewey Walsh, 20 Packard Street, spent anxious moments until the recovery was made.

<td>58-0350</td>
<td>Easton Fatal Crash</td>
<td>February 14, 1958</td>
<td>A Lawrence man was killed and his two companions were critically hurt this morning when their auto hit a tree on Bay road. Robert Woodburn, 28, of 4 Reservoir Street, Lawrence, identified by police as driver, was believed to have died instantly behind the wheel. His passengers, James Linehan, 21, of 5 Bancroft Street, Norton, and Robert Finniani, 26, of 3 Water Street, Dorchester, suffered severe head injuries and shock. Both were taken to the Brockton Hospital were they were reported in fair condition and named on the danger list. The auto left the road and struck a tree on what police described as a long sweeping curve. They theorized that the driver may have fallen asleep. Police were unable to question the passengers immediately. The exact time the accident took place was not known. It was discovered at 6:25 AM by Mrs. Dorothy Wood. She lives nearby, and from her window saw the auto against a tree about 500 yards South of the intersection of Route 123 and 106. Mrs. Wood notified Easton police and Patrolmen Fred Anderson and Ralph Peterson responded with Registry of Motor Vehicles Inspector Edward McLaughlin. Medical Examiner Dr. Andrew J. Leddy of Tauton was called and he pronounced Woodburn dead from internal injuries. The two passengers were taken to the hospital, one in a police ambulance and the other in the blue ambulance. The auto with its front end badly smashed, was towed to a local garage.</td>

Whitman Woman Is Pinned in Car Wreck
February 14, 1958

Miss Emma C. Price, 43, of 30 Oakwood avenue, Whitman, was pinned in the wreckage of an auto which was in collision with another car at Forest avenue and Ash street, Brockton, at 9:30 this morning. Firefighters helped her out of the wreckage and she was taken to Brockton hospital. Miss Price was thrown from the drivers seat to the passenger seat in front. When the door was crashed in she was trapped. First police on the scene called the fire department for help and Dep. Chief John W. Kelly and Lt. Lawrence Marston directed firefighters in prying open the door. She suffered chest and head injuries but her condition is reported not to be serious. Driver of the other auto, William E. Burns, 851 Pleasant Street, Brockon, was taken to Goddard Hospital. He was treated for a head concussion. The two cars were demolished in the crash that brought five pieces of fire apparatus to the scene. Miss Price was proceeding Southerly on Ash street, and Burns, easterly on Forest avenue, when the collision occurred. The crash sent the Price car up against a tree. When the fire department arrived, firefighters under the direction of Dep. Chief Kelly and Lt. Morston had to use pry bars to get Miss Price from the wreckage. She was taken to the Brockton Hospital in the veterans ambulance. Burns was taken to the Goddard Hospital by Patrolmen Carlson and Burns. Investigating the accident was Patrolmen Roach and Sharon. Fire apparatus washed away gasoline and the two demolished new cars were towed away by wreckers.

Whitman Snow Monster attracting quite a bit of attention along Washington Street is this huge statue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Bjork, 467 Washington Street. The girls at the left are Laurel I. Bjork, 12, and Marcia L. Fullerton, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Fullerton, Jr., 70 Webster Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Lunn of Howard Street, Easton, have been married for 50 years.

As if the weekend snowstorm wasn't enough, the rapidly melting snow today added another dimension to the picture, icicles. Alden L Lane and J. William Tonis, widely known Brocktonians, are dwarfed by the size of the icicles forming on the rear of the Goldthwaite block, 109 Main Street.

Moncevics Testimonial took place Sunday night despite the storm when practically every other gathering in the city was cancelled. Councilor Moncevicz and his family were special guests. Left to right, Paul H. Moncevicz, 15; Mrs. Moncevicz, Hipolit Moncevicz who was the guest of honor; William, nine; Msgr. Francis Strakauskas of 74 Frankton ave, pastor. Brought from Burma when United States troops left there at the end of World War II, Sandy, a nondescript Collie-type dog owned by Preston S. Noel, 430 Warren avenue, still is his master's constant companion in his thousands of miles of travel as a truckdriver for Bourne's Transportation, Inc. Mr. Noel discovered Sandy in Burma when he was a member of the famed Merrill's Marauders and he immediately became a mascot of the soldiers. In fact he became such a pet that, despite army red tape, he was brought back to this country and is now probaby the most-traveled dog in this section.

58-0620  Girl Escapes Injury as Auto Hits Pole  March 15, 1958

A 17-year-old South Weymouth girl escaped injury just before 6 p.m. Saturday when the auto she was operating on North Washington Street near Vaughan Avenue went out of control and hit a utility pole, snapping it off. Patrolman Waldo T. Sheldon and Edward Zoobkoff, who investigated, identified the driver as Miss Barbara J. Rogers of 70 Duran Street, South Weymouth. Miss Durant told police she was on her way home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Sharpe of 16 Jenkins Avenue, just a short distance from the accident scene. The front end of the auto was badly damaged and it had to be towed away. An emergency crew from the Brockton Edison Co. was called to replace the broken pole.

58-0621_2  Holbrook Man Dies at Wheel of Auto  March 17, 1958

A Holbrook deputy fire chief, who apparently suffered a heart attack while driving on West Chestnut Street, West Abington, this forenoon, was found dead in his car after it had crashed into the rear of a parked car. The victim was Fred M. Higgins, 62, of 938 South Franklin Street, Holbrook. Medical Examiner Raymond G. Vina, of Norwell said it could not immediately be determines whether death was the result of the heart attack or the crash. Stephen J. O'Brien, acting police chief, said Higgins turned off the motor of his car and tried to pull off the road. The key broke off in the ignition, O'Brien said, and part of it was [stuck] in the car. Higgins' car smashed into the rear of a parked car owned by James DiPucchio of 195 Chestnut street. The car was parked in front of Dipucchio's home. Higgins was driving westerly on West Chestnut street at the time of the crash, which occurred near the intersection of Hancock and West Chestnut streets. Higgins, who was employed as a steamfitter, had been a member of the Holbrook fire department for 30 years. Survivors include his wife, Matilda; two sons, Fred, Jr., of Holbrook and Leonard of Brockton, and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Perkins of Brookville and Mrs. Beverly Carter of Avon. Higgins was the brother of the late Kenneth "Rusty" Higgins, well-known basketball player in this area. The accident was investigated by Acting Chief O'Brien, Patrolmen Thomas Bowden and Howard F. Levings, county identification officer.

Four persons suffered minor injuries in two auto-truck accidents within 90 minutes on the West Side Thursday afternoon. The first at 2:47 was for a crash at Green and Newbury streets, when a light sedan operated by Mrs. Cathry L. Hall, 7 Reynolds Street, North Easton, was in collision with a light pick up truck operated by George R. Shephard, 24, of 110 Central street, South Easton. According to Patrolmen Lofstom and Casey, Mrs. Hall was making a left turn from Green Street into Newbury. The truck was heading south on Newbury Street. The truck spun around and hit the right rear against a large tree on the southwest corner, sending articles in the back all over the sidewalk. Shephard claimed injuries to his head and left knee and was taken to the Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen Lincoln and Roach.

Two persons were injured, one serious enough to warrant hospital treatment, and six others, four of them children, were shaken up in a three-car collision at 9:20 this morning at Belmont and Torrey Streets. Treated at Brockton Hospital for a bad laceration of the right leg, multiple contusions about the body and shock was Harriet Bump, 61, of 585 Crescent Street. She was a passenger in an auto operated by James T. Taylor, also of 585 Crescent Street, one of the three involved in the triple crash. She was taken to Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen Casey and Lofstrom and admitted for treatment and observation. Assigned to investigate the accident were Patrolmen Pike and Frank Lucas while Patrolman Easton of the bureau of criminal investigation took photographs. According to police an auto owned by Cloverleaf Farms, 301 Taunton avenue, Seekonk, operated by Ralph E. Rose, 262 Taunton Avenue, Seekonk, came out of Torrey Street onto Belmont Street and was in collision with a machine operated by Taylor. The third car with Richard Thrasher, 149 Commerical Street, Whitman, police say, was unable to stop in time and crashed into the rear of the Taylor auto. Thrasher claimed an injury to his back but declined hospital treatment, stating that he would see his family physician. Riding with Thrasher, was Mrs. Margaret Thrasher, 49, and four of her children, Alfred, nine; John, eight; Arthur, six; and Ricky, five. She and the children police say, did not claim injury although they were all shaken up by the impact. Highway department employees cleared the roadway of debris while wreckers towed the disabled cars to garages for repair.

58-0683  Three Injured in Expressway Crash  March 25, 1958

West Bridgewater. Five people narrowly escaped death Tuesday afternoon on the Fall River expressway in West Bridgewater, as the sedan in which they were riding left the northbound lane, dug deep ruts in a wide area on the median strip and then rolled over to land with wheels in air and crushed top. The driver was most seriously injured and reported in critical condition on the danger list at Brockton Hospital with head and internal injuries. He is CPO Alfred J. Pink, 37, of 58 Hall avenue, Newport, RI, with home address as 1265 West 26th street, Jacksonville, FL. Owner of the car, who claimed no injuries was storekeeper 3-C Wilmer O. Daniels, 32, of Crusher road, Hopewell, NJ. Both navy men are attached to the USS Antietam, aircraft carrier, now at the Charlestown Annex, South Boston. Occupants of the vehicle were: Mrs. Flora Washington, 31, and her five-year-old daughter, Diane, of 15 Wales street, Dorchester. Mrs. Washington had leg and head injuries, but her daughter escaped with scratches and bruises. Another passenger was Mrs. Lavinia Scott, 36, of 18 Dewey street, Roxbury, who also was treated for face and leg injuries. According to West Bridgewater Patrolman Gardner Lothrop, report of the accident was given by passing motorists. Coming to the scene were Deputy Fire Chief Edwin Gibson with Comb. 1 and emergency wagon crew of Capt. Richard Keith, Lt. Frank Burque, Thomas MacQuinn and Peter Mahoney. Report to police was that they were returning from Newport with Daniels asleep on the back seat, the others napping and apparently Pink also dozed off. Mrs. Washington was pinned in the vehicle with Diane beside her. A dump truck driver stopped and used his hoist to raise the overturned car so the injured woman could be removed. The others were able to crawl out. An unidentified nurse, in a passing car, helped until cruiser ambulances arrived on the scene. Bridgewater Office Michael Bois, with MacQuinn, took Pink and Mrs. Washington to Brockton Hospital. Officer Lothrop with mahoney transported Diane. Brockton ambulance with Officers Sharon and Sullivan performed the same duty for Mrs. Scott and Daniels. Traffic had to be re-routed onto the southbound lane for a short distance while West Bridgewater firefighters assisted by Officer George Randall of Easton. State Trooper Gene Goldberg also assisted at the scene. Trooper Arthur Turcotte took pictures and Registry Inspector John Lynch aided in the investigation.

Sisterhood Women Decipher Braille

March 24, 1958

As a temple sisterhood community project, members of the sisterhoods of the Temple of Israel and Temple Beth Emunah, both of Brockton, are taking lessons in translating English into braille so that they may devise textbooks for use of the blind. In photo above, the instructor, Mrs. Matthew P. Spector of Sharon, points out braille symbols to four members of the class, Mrs. Bernard S. Lazarus, Mrs. Frank A. Snyder, Mrs. Manuel Alter and Mrs. Martin B. Feinberg.

58-0757  Accident on Field Street
April 7, 1958

Two persons were injured, one quite seriously, in two accidents within minutes on rainswept highways late Monday afternoon. The first at 4:48 occurred when a truck owned by the Granite Rock Dairy and driven by the dairy owner, Walter Thomas, 45, 496 North Cary street, left the road on Field street and hit a tree. The car veered to the right and hit a tree on the lawn of Joseph DeMullis, 349 Field street. Thomas was thrown 20 feet from the cab, unconscious on the lawn when Patrolmen Ruggiero and Zullas arrived. Thomas was taken to Brockton Hospital and was in fair condition, with head, back and shoulder injuries. He did not recover consciousness until sometime after his arrival at the hospital.

Gasoline Truck Crushes Parked Car
April 10, 1958
Brockton’s deserted Belmont street at 2:15 A.M. today had a narrow escape from possible fire when a Rhode Island trailer truck loaded with 5600 gallons of gasoline collided into a parked 1954 automobile owned by Robert M. Florio, 49, of 212 Newbury street. The driver of the truck, Dimitry S. Shewchuk, 42, of Rhode Island, escaped injury but Brockton firefighters spent hours wetting down the pavement as gasoline leaked from the vehicle.

Black-Hurley Rites Are Solemnized at St. Paul's
April 13, 1958

White snapdragons and carnations banked the alter of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Brockton Sunday afternoon for the 3 o'clock ceremony at which Miss Barbara Lois Hurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred L. Hurley of 645 West Main street, Avon, became the bride of Kenneth Furman Black, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin W. Black of 504A Sea street, Quincy. Rev. Daniel K. Davis, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony, which was followed by a reception at a South Easton Inn. Organist for the wedding, one of the prettiest of the season, was Mrs. Karen Johnstad, playing traditional processional and recessional music. The pews were decorated with white satin bows and white carnations. Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a lovely picture in an exquisite gown of ivory peau de soie with scalloped bateau neckline and wristpoint sleeves. The skirt and neckline were appliqued with Alencon lace embroidered with sequins, and the princess-line back skirt extended into a cathedral train. The bride's fingertip-length veil of silk illusion was enhanced by a cap of Alencon lace trimmed with sequins and pearls, and she carried a cascade of stephanotis, baby pink orchids and pink sweetheart roses. The bride and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph W. Hurley of Harrodsburg, Ky., as matron of honor. She wore a white nylon embossed sheer floor-length gown, fashioned with open scoop neckline, cap sleeves, and cummerbund pleated waist with full bouffant hoopskirt. She had a pleated Plaza pink picture hat with white velvet trim, and pink gloves and she carried variated pink spring flowers. Identically gowned were the six bridesmaids, Mrs. Barbara Jantamaso, Miss Joyce Estabrook and Mrs. Marguerite Derosier, all of Brockton; Miss Anne Scanlan, Mrs. Judith Praznik of Quincy and Miss Theresa Moriarty of New Bedford. Their gowns in Plaza pink and hats were identical to that of the matron of honor, and the hats were white with pink trim. They carried cascades of purple stock and pink spring flowers. Miss Debra Hurley of Harrodsburg, Ky., was flower girl, dressed in white nylon over pink satin hooped skirt with ruffled back skirt caught up with tiny rosebuds. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hurley chose a sheath dress of light blue chiffon taffeta with accessories to match. Mrs. Black, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in a rose lace sheath dress with accessories to match. Both had corsages of orchids. William Young of Brookline performed the duties of best man for Mr. Black. The ushers included Thomas Tucker and William Munn of Quincy, Henry Merrill of Randolph, John Brennock of Dorchester, Joseph W. Hurley of Harrodsburg, Ky., brother of the bride, and James Breen of Lowell. The Reception, held in South Easton following the ceremony, was attended by the 250 guests, including friends and relatives from Washing D.C., Kentucky, New Jersey, Florida and New York. The bridal table was decorated with flowers blending with the bride's bouquet. The large tiered wedding cake also carried out the pink and white pattern by having tiny pink rosebuds in the decorations. A wedding dinner was served. Miss Nancy McMullin of Quincy was in charge of the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Black left on a one-week wedding trip to Washington D.C., and Virginia. The bride's traveling costume was a beige chemise style suit, and her hat and accessories were cocoa, brown. She wore a corsage of white orchids. The couple will reside at 504 Sea street, Quincy. The bride is a graduate of Dean Academy and Junior College, where she was active as vice-president of the student government, was house president, member of the Glee Club and Dramatic Club, is now class secretary of the Alumni Association. She attended Northeastern University, majoring in pre-medical technology, and she is a medical technician at Quincy City Hospital. Mrs. Black is a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Mr. Black, a graduate of Quincy High school with the class of 1954, is a graduating senior at Northeastern University, employed at the Howard D. Johnson Co. as an accountant through the Northeastern University co-operative plan. His is a second lieutenant in the Scabbard and Blade, national military honor society, "H" Company, 11th Regiment. He also is section representative of the class of 1959 at Northeastern University, and a member of Manet Lodge, AF & AM, of Quincy. Mr. Black is a member of Adam Shore Community Church.

Wedding processional and recessional music was played by Carl B Swanson, organist. Soloist was Mrs. Ruth Ekman. The bride wore a gown fashioned of imported rose point Chantilly lace and nylon tulle fashioned with Sabrine neckline encrusted with tiny pearls and irridescent sequins, and wrist-point sleeves. The basque bodice extended with tiers in the front terminating in a bouffant full court train. The bride's matching lace tiara was worn with a fingertip length veil of imported pure silk illusion, and her cascade bouquet combined stephanotis and white orchids. The maid of honor wore a floorlength gown of sky blue taffeta fashioned with a scoop neckline, fitted bodice and draped full bouffant hoop skirt. She had a white straw picture hat with blue trim and carried a French gatherine basket filled with pink carnations and showered with pink satin streamers. The Bride's mother, Mrs. Fruzzetti, was attired in a dusty rose dress of nylon chiffon trimmed with satin, with accessories of matching colors and a corsage of bronze cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Dodd, the bridegroom's mother, wore a saphire blue silk sheath with blue and white accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. A reception was followed at the Walk Over Club. The couple left for a wedding trip to New York and Washington, D.C. The bride wore a gray suit with navy blue accessories. Mr and Mrs Dodd will reside at 1183 Warren Avenue. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High School and employed by the Prudential Insurance Co. She is a member of the First Lutheran Church. Mr Dodd is a graduate of Brockton High School and attended Stonehill College. He is self-employed. Mr Dodd is a member of the First Lutheran Church.

Notes:
Corinne Leona Wright, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sheehan, 95 Wyman street, was married Sunday afternoon to James Francis Tierney, son of Mrs. Mildred Tierney, 11 Huntington place, and James Tierney of Randolph. The double ring ceremony was performed at St. Edward’s church by Rev. Francis J. Harkins. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle. Robert Burke was soloist and sang "Bride’s Prayer" and "Ave Maria". Helen Joubert was organist. Mrs. Roger LeBlanc of this city was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Dondi, Miss Annette Testa and Miss Evelyn Hatch, all of Brockton, and Miss Maureen Tierney of Philadelphia. Dorothy Ann Tonoli, Abington, and Linda Marie Tonoli, of Maine, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. The bridegroom’s cousin, William Tierney, of Philadelphia, was best man. Ushers, all from Brockton, were Roger LeBlanc, Joseph Sergi, Robert Mucci and the bridegroom’s brother, Robert Tierney. The bride was gowned in white satin styled with Chantilly lace inserts, bouffant skirt and sweetheart neckline with seed pearls and sequins. Her veil was cathedral length and attached to a regal crown. She carried a bouquet of glamelias with a white orchid centre. The bridesmaids wore floor length gowns of nylon chiffon, two in coral and two in apple green, fashioned with square necklines, shirred shoulders, full bouffant hoop skirts and cummerbund waists. The matron of honor was similarly gowned in powder blue. They carried cascades of glamelias. The bride’s aunt wore a dress of blue nylon chiffon with a pink corsage. The bridegroom’s mother wore blue chiffon and a yellow corsage. The reception for 250 guests followed at Sons of Italy Park. Guests were from Brockton, Abington, Rockland, Randolph, Whitman, Bridgewater, Somerville, Milford, Cape Cod, Maine, Philadelphia and New York. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Robert LaGarde of this city a friend of the bride. The hall was decorated with spring flowers. The couple left for a wedding trip to New York City and Washington, D.C. On return they will live at 95 Wyman street. For traveling the bride wore a two-piece suit with ranch mink collar, brown accessories and white orchid corsage. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High school and is employed by the Home National Bank. The bridegroom was educated in Brockton schools and is a cabinet maker.

An East Side man was injured at 1:10 A.M. today when the car police said he was driving tipped over after failing to make the curve on centre street near short street. Reuben Magee, 35, of 630 Centre Street, the driver, refused hospitalization at the scene but was later taken to Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen B. Lucas and Healey fom the station where he had been booked for drunkenness, operating without a license. He suffered a cut nose and back injury. He was unable to appear in Brockton District court today and the causes were continued to Monday.

Magee told police he was driving east and failed to make the curve at cetnre and short streets. The car shot from the highway, hurtled several large rocks; plowered through a small field, tore up the lawn of a two-family house owned by Mrs. Marion Archibald, 967 Centre Street and occupied on the first floor by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perry, then plunged into a wooded area, finally rolling over and rest on its top. Magee said he had crawled from the vehicle. The car was demolished. Squad a was called when it was feared someone was trapped in the car. The distance from the spot where the car left the highway to the wooded area was more than 250 feet. Magee has lived in Brockton with this wife for a year, coming here from New Orleans, LA. Patrolmen Burns and Carlson investigated and were the arresting officers.

One of many accidents occuring in the Brockton area over the weekend saw this two-car crash as the danger corner of Pleasant and West Streets, Brockton, at the height of the rainstorm late Saturday. John Walsh, 17, of 50 Pond Street, Randolph, inset, operator of the car at the right, hold his neck and shoulder which were injured in the smashup. Two women were injured when two cars collided at the intersection of West and Pleasant streets at 6:55 P.M. Saturday. Mrs. Amelia Walsh, 41, of 50 Pond Street, Randolph, was treated at the Brockton Hospital for chest injuries, and Mrs. Ruth Finklestein, 30, of 65 Elm Street, Hyannis, injured her right knee but told police she would be treated by her own phsycian. Police said that John Walsh, 17 of 50 Pond Street, Randolph, was treated at the Brockton Hospital for chest injuries. Police said that John Walsh, 17, of 50 Pond Street Randolph, was driving out of West Street to enter D.W. Field Park, and Jason Finklestein, 31, of 65 Elm Street, Hyannis, was proceeding west on Pleasant Street when the cars collided at the intersection. The right side and right rear fender of the Walsh car were damaged and the impact swung the car toward the entrance of the park. The two cars were locked in the intersection and a heavy traffic tieup resulted. Sgt. Glaneuski and Patrolman Gentile handled the traffic while Patrolmen Loftstrom, Dean, Zullas and S. Spillane took the occupants of the cars to the hospital.
Shots of an automobile accident that occurred at North Montello and East Ashland Street at 2 P.M. Automobile accidents Sunday afternoon sent four persons to the hospital in Brockton. In the worst accident, three persons were admitted to the Brockton Hospital for injuries. It occurred at North Montello and East Ashland Streets.

Robert B. Love, 17, driver of one car, was hospitalized with a possible fractured arm. He lives at 159 Green Street, Weymouth. His two passengers also were injured. They were Edward Houle, 42 Newcomb Street, Quincy, head and knee injuries and Susan Vedoe, 16, 110 Birchbrow avenue, North Weymouth injury to her right knee. The car driven by Love was in collision with one driven by Vilo Zenkus, 40, 473 Spring Street, West Bridgewater. Zenkus was going north on North Montello Street, and the Love car came out of West Ashland Street. Both cars were badly damaged and required towing. Zenkus did not claim any injuries at the time.

Man Has Heart Attack as Autos Are in Collision

May 25, 1958

A West Side man suffered a heart attack Sunday night after the car in which he was riding was in an accident at Ash and West Elm streets. Angelos Pechilis, of 370 Ash Street, was taken to Goddard Hospital, where his condition this morning was listed as satisfactory. Pechilis was a passenger in a car driven by his nephew, Achilles T. Economas, 33, of 26 Highland street. Economas, who was shaken up and bruised, also was admitted to Goddard Hospital and was in "satisfactory condition today. A third person in the car, Arthur Geougantas, 71, of 7 Skinner street, was treated at the Brockton Hospital for an injury to his right leg and was later discharged. The driver of the second car, indentified as Frederick R. Madon of 187 Washington Street, North Easton, also claimed injuries and said he would be treated by his own physician. The injured were taken to the hospitals by Patrolmen Dodero and DeChristopher. Police said Economas was driving south on Ash Street and Madon west on West Elm Street, when the accident occurred.

Sailor Dies in Car Crash at Raynham

May 26, 1958

A 32-year-old Maryland navy man was killed instantly shortly before 6 o'clock this morning when his sedan left the north bound lane of the Fall River expressway in this town and struck the King Street bridge abutment. The dead man was indentified as Harry J. Mellen, 32, of 28 North wood drive, Timonian, MD, a sailor attached to the USS Colleton, South Boston. Dr. Charles F. Kane of Brockton, associated medical examiner, summoned by police, said Mellen died of a crushed chest. The car in which he had been traveling alone was so badly demolished that the engine was thrust into the front seat area, police said. Bridgewater police were among the first to respond, when reports of the accident indicated it had occurred in Bridgewater. However, subsequently it was found to have happened several hundred yards south of the Bridgewater-Raynham line. Registry Inspector John J. Lynch of Brockton as well as State and armed forces police responded.

Driver Injured

May 23, 1958

Leroy F. Campbell, 52, of 19 Woodland avenue, was treated at Brockton Hospital shortly after 3 P.M. Friday for injuries to his right shoulder and arm received, police say, when the auto he was operating was in collision at Green and Newbury streets with an auto driven by Thomas F. Smith, 52 Moalis avenue, West Bridgewater. Investigation was made by Patrolmen John J. Lyons and Perley K. Johnson, who also took the injured man to the hospital. A Crew from the highway department cleared the roadway at the intersection of debris resulting from the accident.

May 28, 1958

One person was hospitalized as the result of a two-car crash at the entrance to Pine Hill Cemetery, Route 28, this town [Brockton], at 2:15 P.M., Wednesday. Joseph Souza, 75, of 989 High Street, Bridgewater, a passanger in a car operated by Frank L. Smerz of the same address, was taken to Brockton hospital for facial lacerations by Officer Edwin E. Gibson. The Smerz car was in collision with another automobile operated by John Woodsum, Middleboro. His wife, Nellie, was a passanger in the car and said she would see her own physician. Woodsum claimed no injuries. The Woodsum car was proceeding north on Route 28 and, according to police, had turned in front of the Smerz car to enter the cemetery. State Trooper Goldberg assisted West Bridgewater Police in the investigation and traffic.

58-1365  Accident of Spring Street and Ash Street  May 29, 1958

Four persons sustained minor injuries in a collision of two autos at Spring and Ash street at 7:40 this morning. All were discharged after examinations at hospitals showed they suffered only abrasions and shaking up. Mrs. Evelyn Phillips, 52, of 10 Silver road, identified by police as the operator of one car, and her daughter, Martha, 12, were taken to the Goddard Hospital by Patrolmen Upton and Ralph Clark. Mrs. Phillips' son, Walter, 15, was taken to the Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen Khoury and Tamulerich. Police say he was thrown from the car and landed on his left leg. Police identified the operator of the other car as John S. Small, 26 Monson street. They said he was not taken to the hospital. Mrs. Phillips was operating south on Ash street, according to Patrolman Perley K. Johnson, and Small east on Spring street. The collision resulted in one car damaging shrubbery at the home of Christine Yukins, 380 Ash street. Mrs. Phillips and her two children were assisted from the car by Ralph F. Poulding Jr., of 254 Green Street, a witness to the mishap. Both cars were towed away.

58-1372_2  Arrest Driver After Two Are Hurt in Crash

May 28, 1958

Two persons received bruises and abrasions in a three-car collision at Warren avenue, near Calmor street, at 1 P.M. today. Injured were Mrs. Evelyn Calitri, 25, and her son, John Calitri, Jr., influence following the crash was Leo F. Callahan, 62 Brett Street, Patrolman McCarthy and Tamulevitch, who investigated, reported. Police said the accident occurred as John Calitri, husband of Mrs. Calitri, was stopped waiting to turn his car into his driveway on Warren Avenue. His car was struck from the rear by the car driven by Callahan and driven over a lawn hitting a porch of a home owned by Dominic Voci, 1006 Warren Avenue, police said. Extensive damage was done to fences, lawn and front porch of the Voci home, police said. After striking the Calitri car, police said, Callahan's car continued on its way and struck another car parked by the side of Warren avenue, owned by Robert G. Carlson, 122 French avenue. This car was damaged in the left rear. Mrs. Calitri and her son refused hospital treatment, and said they would be treated by their own physician. Callahan, booked after the accidents, will appear in District court Thursday morning on charges of drunkenness and driving under the influence.

The enlistees were Alan H. Burke of 261 Titicut Street, Bridgewater, and James M. Goldmann, 52 East Avenue, Whitman. The draftees were four.

Ladder 2 on Copeland Street, just South of Brookside avenue, Brockton, shortly before noon today after its rear section struck a tree and three two firefighters to the ground. Damage to the truck is being surveyed above by fire department officials and mechanics.
Miss Rosamund Louise Murdock, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick W Murdock, 210 Belmont Avenue, and Robert Nielson Pilon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Pilon, 182 College Highway, Weatogue, Conn., were married Sunday afternoon at Porter Congregational Church. The ceremony at 3 PM was a double ring service, performed by the pastor, Rev. Richard Stoughton, and Rev. Lester G. Meyers, former minister of the church. Wedding music was played by Miss Doris Tirrell, Arthur F. Shaw, Jr., soloist, sang "At Dawning," Cadman; "The Wedding Prayer", Dunlap, and "The Lord's Prayer", Malotte. Dr. Murdock gave his daughter in marriage and the sister of the bride, Mrs. Daniel D Johnson (Joanne Murdock) of Whittier, Cal., was matron of honor. Her bridesmaid was Miss Beverly M Pilon of Simsbury, Conn., sister of the bridegroom. Serving his brother as bestman was Burce F. Pilon of Connecticut and the brother of the bride, Frederick M Murdock, Jr., was an usher with Paul Kingsbury of Boston. An outdoor reception followed at the bride's home where a champagne toast to the newlyweds was given by the best man. On the beautiful lawns and gardens, the guests were greeted by the bridal party and parents of the bride and bridegroom who formed a receiving line under the white pagoda, laden with purple wisteria. Seventy-five or more guests were present from all New England States. The bride's wedding gown of white embroidered silk organza was fashioned with portrait neckline, short sleeves, fitted pointed basque and full skirt in waltz length. Her short circular veil of French tulle was caught to a pearl-trimmed lace cap and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore silk organza, printed in bouquets of blue and green flowers, with sea green taffeta sash tied with bow in back and gored skirt shaped by taffeta lining. A gown of ice-blue organza with portrait neckline, fitted basque and bouffant skirt was worn by the bridesmaid with hat to match. Each carried a cascade of raspberry-ice carnations. Mrs. Murdock, mother of the bride, wore a gown of champagne silk in street length, which featured imported Italian Lace bodice and sleeves of tulle, appliqued with lace. Her matching hat was trimmed with leaves and she wore a chartruese cymbidium orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a waltz-length dress of maize nylon tricot over taffeta and hat of matching tulle with floral leaf trim. Her corsage was deep yellow cymbidium orchids. For traveling the bride chose a beige cotton knit two-piece dress with straw hat and matching rainbow striped bag and shoes. She wore a corsage of yellow flowers. After a week's trip to Cape Cod, the couple will return June 8 to be graduated from Tufts Medical School. They will make their home in Jamaica Plain. The bride attended Albion College, Albion, Mich.; and graduated with a BS degree from Jackson College; was research assistant in genetics at Long Island Biological Laboratory and is graduating from Tufts University of Medicine. She is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority and president of Student American College Association at Tufts. Mr. Pilon was graduated from University of New Hampshire, magna cum laude, and will receive a medical degree from Tufts University School of Medicine. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, honorary societies; Sigma Beta Fraternity and the Masonic Order. Both the bride and the bridegroom will intern in Boston, beginning July 1, the bride in straight pediatrics at Boston City Hospital and her husband in rotating...

Child Badly Hurt in One Of Accidents

Four emergency calls within six minutes Thursday afternoon stripped the police station of both men and equipment and other minor calls had to wait for investigation. Two accidents, in one of which a four-year old girl was critically injured, and a "big fight" tied up the two cruisers details, two members of the bureau of criminal investigation in the inspectors' car and the two house men in the old patrol wagon, commonly referred to as Wagon 1. Darlene Foscaldi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foscaldi, 20 West Street, is reported in "poor condition" with her name on the danger list at the Brockton Hospital. She has a compound fracture of their upper left leg, multiple contusions and abrasions and probable head and internal injuries. The call for this accident came in at 3:07 P.M. Patrolmen Louis C. Dufresne and Charles R. Powderly took her to the hospital. Police identified the operator of the car which struck the Foscaldi girl as Gary J. Thomas, 22, of 22 South Botolph Street, Boston. They reported the girl rode a tricycle into the street when she was struck. Reg. Insp. John F. Belrose assisted in this investigation.

58-1468  Cars Collide at Boundary Avenue and North Cary Street  June 7, 1958

Two persons were injured when two cars collided at Boundary avenue and North Cary Street shortly after 7 o'clock Saturday night. Taken to the Brockton Hospital was John Roberts, 52, 33 Old Webster road, Assinipi, suffering from a throat injury and cuts about the face. Mrs. Mary Johnston, 46, 11 Spring Street, Holbrook, was taken to the Goddard Hospital by Patrolmen E. Tamulevich and Khoury. She had cuts about the face and a chest injury. Police said that Elwyn G. Dillon, 24, 428 High Street, Bridgewater, was driving South on North Quincy Street and William Johnston, 69, 11 Spring Street, east on Boundary avenue, when the cars collided in the intersection. Both of the injured were riding with Johnston. Patrolmen Dodero and DeChristopher took Roberts to the hospital.

58-1469  Autos Crash Head-on, Trio in Hospital  June 8, 1958

West Bridgewater-- Three persons were injured in a head on collision on North Main Street (Route 28) near Copeland Street Sunday night. Taken on the Brockton Hospital by Brockton, West Bridgewater and Bridgewater police were Gerald A. Weatherbee, 26, of Field Street, Brockton; Miss Elaine Duquette, 19, of 122 Franklin Street, Whitman, and Joseph Pimental, 23 of Oak Street, Bridgewater. Weatherbee, identified by police as the driver of the car headed northerly, was reported in good condition at the hospital today, where he was being treated for a fractured arm and head injury. Miss Duquette, a passenger in Weatherbee's car, was reported in fairly good condition today, undergoing treatment for fractured ribs, fractured shoulder and internal injuries. Pimental, driver of the other car involved, was named in satisfactory condition, recovering from head injuries. The injured were taken to the hospital by West Bridgewater Patrolmen Lothrop and Anderson, Patrolmen Hall and Gebo of Bridgewater and Brockton Patrolmen Dodero and DeChristopher. Both cars were nearly demolished in the crash.

58-1470  Accident on Spring anf North Warren Avenue  June 5, 1958

Accident was received from Spring and North Warren Avenue at 3:13 when two cars collided at the intersection with one person being injured. Earle P. Freety, 67, 12 Ellsworth Avenue, was treated at Brockton Hospital for neck and rib injuries. Police say he was operator of a car traveling southerly on North Warren Avenue and involved in a collision with one being operated easterly on Spring Street by Marjorie D. Moore, 18 Shaw Street, Bridgewater, who did not claim to be injured.
58-1471  Accident at Portland and Crescent Streets  June 2, 1958

In a collision at Portland and Crescent Streets shortly after 10 P.M., Anthony v. Canale, 51, of Cheryl road, Manomet, suffered a heady injury and an injury to his shoulder and was held overnight at the Brockton Hospital, where he was taken by Patrolmen Spillane and Casey. Patrolmen Lofstrom and Noonan reported that Canale was making a U-turn on Crescent Street, to head easterly when his car was in collision with one being driven Westerly on Crescent Street by Wilbur J. Boss, 20, of 111 Riverview Street. The two cars had to be towed off, the Boss Sedan having extensive damage to the front and right side and the Canale Station wagon to the front end.

A Brockton youth, Robert L. Stoddard, 20 of 1191 Main Street, Campello, was in critical condition at Brockton Hospital today suffering from injuries received in West Bridgewater last night when the car he was driving went off the road, struck a stonewall and came to rest against a tree. Hospital authorities said he suffered a fracture of the right leg, fracture of the right thigh, fracture of the right clavicle, a head injury, facial cuts and numerous bruises. His names was on the danger list. Police said the accident happened on North Elm Street when the car went out of control, swerved across the street in front of the home of Howard Fox, struck a stonewall and then crashed into a tree. The car police said, belongs to his brother, Richard Stoddard of 115 Webster Street, Rockland. Patrolman Edwin Gilbson answered an emergency call and on arrival at the scene requested aid by radio. Brockton Patrolmen Lyons and Perley Johnson, with a cruiser-ambulance arrived just as Police Chief Eaton and Patrolmen Robert Anderson, Gardner Lothrop and Raymond Sylva of the West Bridgewater police department responded. Before Stoddard was placed in ambulance splints were applied to his badly fractured leg, police said. The car had to be towed away.

58-1597  Accident at North Montello and Elliot Streets  June 18,1958

A Whitman Man was taken to Brockton Hospital shortly before 8 AM today by police and was treated for injuries about the mouth, received when the panel truck he was operating was in collision at North Montello and Elliot Streets with a pleasure car. Injured was John Morgan, 42, of 66 Forest Street, Whitman, who Patrolmen Frawley and Zinkevicz say was traveling westerly on Elliot Street, when his panel body truck was in collision with an auto driven by Robert F Burgess, 380 Winter Street, Brockton. The latter machine, which had its front end demolished, was proceeding southerly on North Montello Street. Burgess, who was badly shaken up, said he was not injured and declined hospital treatment. Morgan was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Perley K Johnson and John J Lyons and was discharged after treatment. First reports of the accident received at police headquarters by Sgt. James P Cody said that it was a bad one and he sent two cruiser details to the scene.

Mrs. Eunice Ida Shaw, Wood Street, Middleboro, celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary Sunday by doing crocheting as she has for much of her life.

Archaeologists digging in new site on shores of Lake Assawompset, Lakeville, have come upon underground ruins of an old Indian Civilization near a similar excavation they made last year. Dr. Maurice Robbins of Attleboro, director of the digging, talks over new find with Frederick L. Lincoln of Middleboro, manager, North Scituate branch, National Bank of Plymouth County. At right are Mr. Lincoln's four daughters, Leslie L., Claudia L., Adelaine and Allison.

To Sheriff Charles H. Robbins, 86, of Plymouth, oldest past president of the old colonial club, which in itself is the oldest social club in America, went special honors Friday night at a club gathering. Included in the group honoring Mr. Robbins were, left to right, Harold E. Gitres, past president; Harold W. Baker, secretary-treasurer; George C.P. Olsson, Clerk of Superior Court; County Commissioner Norman G. MacDonald, club president; Sheriff Robbins, Harold A. Boyer, first vice-president; Sheriff Hanah H. Harlow, second vice-president; and Rep. John A. Armstrong, executive committee.

58-1652  Undulating Hedge  June 24, 1958
Louis L. Silveri's chief pride these days is the wave-like hedge which surrounds his home at 140 Walnut Street, Brockton. Planted in 1934, the hedge has been carefully trimmed in rolling style, with the result its wave-like sections are nearly perfect. Mr. Silveri says he uses nothing but his eye to gauge its rhythmic contour.

Marion Elizabeth Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesterton S. Knight, 151 Moraine Street, became the bride of Peter Newton Walsh, son of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Walsh of St. Louis, Mo., Thursday afternoon in a colorful wedding at First Baptist Church. White Gladiolus, snapdragons, ferns and lighted candelabra, decorated the altar where the 4 o'clock ceremony was performed by Dr. Thomas S Roy, of Worcester, former minister, and the pastor, Rev Clyde S Wolf. The double ring service was used. Appropriate music was played by Francis L Yates, organist. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her sister, Mrs. Allen H Pease of Kensington, Conn., was matron of honor. Her cousin, Miss Gail S Knight, was maid of honor. Six bridesmaids included Miss Joan K Davis and Miss Paula M Clairmont of Brockton; Miss Phyllis Carlson, Old Greenwich, Conn.; Miss Margaret Mayher, Cleveland, O.; Miss Penelope Barnes, New Rochelle, N.Y.; Miss Stephanie Yale of Cambridge. Serving as Best Man was Donald McDonald of St. Louis. Chesterton S Knight, brother of the bride, was head of the usher corps, including Allen H Pease of Kensington, Conn., brother-in-law; Carl H. Andrus of Bronxville, NY; Benjamin H Alexander, Benton Harbor, Mich; James K Vernon, Medina, NY; and Ned W. Edwards, New Haven, Conn. Guests from many States, as well as Brockton and vicinity, attended the wedding and the beautiful outdoor reception which followed at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Margaret Filoon was in charge of the guest book. A chapel-length princess gown of chalk-white chiffon tafetta with Alecon lace empire-effet bodice and long sleeves worn by the lovely bride. Her illusion veil was trimmed with matching Alecon lace and she carries a bouquet of sweetheart roses, and lily of the valley. The bridal attendants were gowned alike in spring mint organdy moulded dresses with bouffant skirt and self-embroidered Dior cape collars. Their flowers were white roses and ivy and each wore a matching head band. Mrs. Knight, mother of the bride, wore peony pink Alecon lace gown, fashioned in redingote style with matching chiffon panel inserted in skirt and glovelength sleeves. She wore a small hat of matching flowers and corsage of cymbidium orchids. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in brown chiffon with full pleated skirt and held length sleeves; hat of brown veilin with matching bows for trimming and corsage of green cymbidium orchids. For traveling the bride chose a printed cotton dress with Jacket and hat to match. She wore a corsage of sweetheart roses. After a wedding trip to the midwest, the newlyweds will reside in St. Louis. The bride, a member of First Baptist Church has finished her junior year at Mount Holyoke College. She is transferring to Washington University, St. Louis, for her senior year. Mr. Walsh, who is attending Washington University Medical School, was graduated from Amherst College.
In the Holy Family Church Sunday afternoon, Miss Rita Therese Gaillardet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gaillardet of 224 Liberty Street, became the bride of Stanley Richard Fogg, son of Mrs. Warren Fogg of Front Street, Weymouth, and the late Mr. Fogg. Rev. Francis P. Connors performed the ceremony, Charles E. Morgan was organist and Robert McCarthy, soloist. White Chantilly lace over taffeta was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. The gown was made with round neckline, long sleeves and the bouffant skirt had a net overskirt. A coronet of pearls held her fingertip veil in place and she carried white roses with baby's breath. Her Sister, Mrs. Alfred Cribari of Providence, RI, as matron of honor, wore mauve pink lace over taffeta with net overskirt and taffeta jacket in waltz length, also a veiled coronet to match. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and pompons. Ronald Garland of Braintree serves as best man and ushers were Robert Costello of Rockland and Robert George of Braintree. At the reception held in Eagles Hall, Miss Therese St. Charles of Abington had charge of the guestbook. The mother of the bride wore a mint green embossed cotton sheath dress with pale pink hat and accessories and corsage of pink roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a beige embroidered with rust summer cotton with rust hat and corsage of burnt orange roses and daisies. After the wedding trip, the couple will live at 61 Safford Street, North Quincy. For traveling the bride chose a mint green jacket dress, white hat and a corsage of white roses. She was graduated from Rockland High School and trained as a hair stylist in Boston Trades School. She has been employed in a North Quincy Beauty Salon. Mr. Fogg was graduated from Braintree High School and has just completed his junior year at Northeastern University College of Engineering. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

The altar of St. Margaret's Church was decorated with bouquets of white gladiolus and pink carnations for the ceremony in which Miss Marellen McLaughlin, bride of Brendan Henry O'Toole, son of M. and Mrs. Henry M. O'Toole of 118 Park Street, Clinton, prior to a nuptial mass Saturday. Rev. William J. McConnell officiated at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception to 125 guests in Avon. Given in marriage by her brother, Arthur E. Rix, the bride was attended by Miss Mary C. McNamee of Naugatuck, Conn. As maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Eva Ann Sheridan of Salem and Miss Mary E. Dolan of Dorchester, all Carney Hospital associates Patricia McNamee of Naugatuck. Conn., was flower girl. Dr. David M. O'Toole of Clinton performed the duties of best man for his brother, and the ushers were Navy Lt. Kevin J. O'Toole of Dorchester, another brother, and Cameron L. Rix of Brockton, brother of the bride. Mrs. John M. Moran of Dorchester and Barry Bossa of St. Margaret’s choir were soloists at the rites, for which Mrs. William McGowan was the organist. Escorted by her brother, the bride was lovely in a gown of imported Swiss organdy with a modified bateau neckline, fashioned with short sleeves, basque bodice with princess panels and full bouffant hoopskirt terminating in a court train. The bride’s fingertip-length veil of imported French silk illusion was attached to a matching double tiara encrusted with tiny sequins and pearls, and she carried a prayer book with pink sweetheart roses attached to satin streamers. The maid of honor wore white embroidered Swiss organdy over blue taffeta and the bridesmaids wore white embroidered imported Swiss organdy ballerina gowns. Their hats were white picture-type with pink and blue ribbons. They carried pink roses with blue and white carnations. The flower girl wore floor-length imported Swiss organdy gown over blue taffeta. She carried a pink satin basket of roses and carnations. The bride’s mother was attired in a sheath dress with matching jacket of gray lace over pink satin, with pink and gray accessories. The bridegroom’s mother wore a champagne linen dress with lace inserts and her accessories were in champagne and pink. Both wore corsages of baby orchids. The reception at an Avon inn was attended by 125 guests including many from out-of-town. Decorations were in pink and white. Miss Mary McDonald of Dorchester had charge of the guest book. The couple left on a one-week wedding trip to Cape Cod, after which they will reside at 91 West Street, Clinton. The bride chose for traveling a blue pique sheath dress with matching jacket in pique and white lace, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High School, class of 1949, and was graduated from Carney Hospital School of Nursing in 1953 and from Carney Hospital School of Anesthesia in 1956. She was employed in the Carney Hospital anesthesia department as a registered anesthetist. Mr. O'Toole, a graduate of Clinton High School, class of 1948, was graduated this month from Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, receiving his BS degree. He is a veteran of four years in the U.S. Navy, during which he was stationed in Washington, D.C., and Adak, Alaska. He is a member of the Mu Chapter of Kappa Psi, national pharmaceutical fraternity. He is employed at Hastings’ Pharmacy in Clinton.

First Water Lilies to bloom this year in D.W. Field Park’s Waldo Lake are examined by Roberta R. Powers, 15, of 15 First Street. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Powers and is a junior at Brockton High School.

5 Injured, Dog Cut as Cars Crash

Five persons and a dog were injured in a two-car collision at Summer and Marion Streets, shortly before 7:30 Monday night. Police identified the injured as: Mrs. Clarence W. Louell, 26, of 114 Wilbur Street, Abington, operator of one car, laceration of left leg below the knee; Lisa Hopgood, three, same address, slight laceration below the left eye; Melody Jane Hopgood, five, same address, possible fracture of the left leg and laceration of the lip; Robert F. Florio, 21, the other operator, of 42 Clifton Avenue, laceration of the left elbow and injury to the right knee; and his son, Stephen Florio, four, shaken up. Patrolman McCarthy and Farwell say the Louell car, registered to Clarence W. Louell came out of Bates Street onto Summer Street and was involved in a collision with the Florio car being operated South on Summer Street. The latter auto was jammed against a utility pole with the Louell car against its right side in a diagonal direction. Florio and his son were taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Louis Dufreshe and Victor Hogan while the other three were taken by Patrolmen Edward Tulevich and Eli Khoury. After both cars were removed from the scene by wreckers, the driver and helper in the Louell car, bleeding "badly from the mouth and paws." The owner said they tried to get it out but were unable to approach the animal. Patrolman Carl Driscoll at police headquarters endeavored to locate the dog officer, without success, then notified the Louells at the Brockton Hospital. Mrs. Dorothea E. Winiewicz, 851 Brockton avenue, Abington, owner of a kennel and former owner of the dog, was told by Mrs. Louell of the dog's plight. Mrs. Dorothea E. Winiewicz went to the car, removed the dog, then said to be in a state of shock, and took the dog to the kennel.

58-1876_2  Brown-Dodd Wedding  July 15, 1958
Miss Carlene Ellen Dodd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stanton Dodd of 19 Morse Avenue, and Eugene Brown, son of Samuel Brown and the late Mrs. Brown, 20 Reddy Avenue, Hyde Park, were married Tuesday evening on the 25th wedding anniversary of the Bride's parents. The candlelight ceremony at 7:30 was performed by Recor Daniel K. Davis in an attractive all-white setting. White flowers adorned the altar and white gowns were worn by bridal attendants. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organdy over satin, fashioned with Bateau neckline and fitted bodice appliqued with Chantilly rosepoint lace. The belled skirt was accented by a court train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attatched to a coronet of seed pearls and orange blossoms and she carried white alba lilies and a shower of stephanotis over a rainbow Bible. The matron of honor, Mrs. Raymond J. Kenney of Brighton, wore a ballet-length gown of white organdy, fashioned with circular neckline, fitted bodice and belled skirt, with a moss dew sash ending in a butterfly bow. Her headdress was a veil with matching moss green velvet ribbon. She carried a garden basket of roses, bachelor buttons, carnations, marguerites and delphinium. Miss Patricia A. Porter of Wellesley Hills, bridesmaid, was dressed exactly the same as the maid of honor and carried a similar basket of flowers. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Susan E. Boucher of 76 South Street, wore white organdy and moss dew taffeta. She carried a basket of flowers and wore a coronet of matching flowers. Mrs. Dodd, mother of the bride, was gowned in a sheath dress of blue silk organza, appliqued with bands of matching lace. Her accessories were blue and white and she wore a white orchid. Attending his brother as bestman was Samuel Brown Jr., of East Weymouth. Ushers included the brother of the bride, Richard H Dodd; bridegroom's brother, James Brown of Hyde Park; Carl Widebeck of Hyde Park and Raymond J. Kenney of Brighton. Guests from New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Cape Cod, Boston and Western Massachusetts were present at the wedding and a reception which followed at the Commerical Club. Decorations of white flowers were arranged on the buffet table and mixed flower arrangements centered the smaller tables. Marcia Clairmont was in charge of the guest book. After a wedding trip to Nantucket, the newlyweds will reside at 159 Columbian street, South Weymouth. The bride's going-away ensemble was a silk print sheath dress with matching beige linen coat and cocoa brown linen accessories. She wore a corsage of white alba lillies. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High School, class of 1952, and the 1956 class of Bridgewater State Teachers College, of which she was vice president. She is a past worthy advisor, Brockton Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls and member of the Omega Iota Phi Sorority. Mr. Brown, a graduate of Hyde Park School and Franklin Technical Institute, is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co. in Quincy. He served in the army for two years.

No. Easton Woman Injured in Crash  August 18, 1958

A 44 year old woman was taken to Brockton Hospital at 10:50 today following a two car crash at East Ashland and North Cary Streets. Mrs. Laurita Smith of 246 Elm Street, North Easton, was under treatment for injuries to her head and shoulders. Patrolman Francis J. Frawley said Mrs. Smith was a passenger in a car operated by Mrs. Norma M. Raymond of 58 Pleasant Street, Stoughton. The driver of the second auto was identified as H. B. Ambler of Natick. Police said neither driver claimed injury at the scene. Mrs. Raymond was operating in an easterly direction on East Ashland Street when her car collided with Ambler’s station wagon, travelling northerly on North Cary Street. Patrolmen Ralph G. Ruggiero and Robert J. Zulas removed Mrs. Smith to the Hospital.

58-2012 West Bridgewater Accident

August 26, 1958

Five auto crashes, including a spectacular accident that demolished two cars on the AMVETS highway in West Bridgewater, resulted in minor injuries to four persons Tuesday afternoon and evening. A steady rain that hampered visibility was believed to have been a contributing factor in the mishap. The West Bridgewater crash that saw one auto smash head-on into a cement bridge abutment and the driver of another thrown from his car to the centre island- miraculously caused only slight injuries. According to Patrolman Robert W. Anderson, a car being driven north on the expressway shortly before 6 P.M. by Albert P. Whitaker, 46, of 536 North Main Street, Randolph, went out of control and crashed into the Walnut Street bridge, then bounced back onto the highway and struck a second car. As both cars careened off the pavement, the driver of the second vehicle—Walter J. Yourell, 38, of 60 Christine Avenue, Rockland—was thrown from the car to the ground. He was later treated at Brockton Hospital for minor injuries. His daughter, Jane, nine, was shaken up. Uninjured were his wife; Irene A., 38, and a son, David A., 11. All were taken to the hospital by Brockton Patrolmen Stephen Spillane and Leo Dodero and later discharged. Whitaker was heald at the hospital to observation of a possible head injury. Aiding in the investigation were West Bridgewater Patrolmen Raymond Silva and Irving G. Lothrop.

At a beautiful midsummer wedding ceremony on Sunday afternoon in Pearl Street Methodist Church, Miss Barbara M. Holbrook, daughter of Mrs. Muriel A. Scott, 18 Spooner Street, North Easton, and Donald F. Holbrook of Walpole, became the bride of John D. Read. Mr. Read is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Read, 216 Howard street, West Bridgewater. Arrangements of white gladiolus and pompons, with blue delphinium, decorated the altar where the double ring rites were performed by Rev. Lee E. Strother, church pastor. Mrs. Ralph S. Alden, church organist, played traditional wedding music preceding the service, and background music during the ceremony. The soloist, Richard E. Carr, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Last Prayer." Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Herbert Tyler of East Bridgewater, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ada Scott, sister of the bride; Miss Priscilla Read, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Janice Thornton of South Easton. The little flower girl was Patricia Dooley, and the ring bearer, George Henry Chase, both of North Easton. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white nylon taffeta, with fitted bodice and full-pleated skirt, sprinkled with rhinestones and pearls, which also outlined the scoop neckline. Her finger tip-length veil of imported tulle illusion was fastened to her hair with a tiara of pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden at the home of the bride's mother in North Easton for 200 guests, where the young couple received them against a floral background. They were assisted in the receiving line by their parents and the members of the wedding party. The gowns of the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were identically fashioned of azure blue nylon organza, imprinted with white, of waltz length, and with wide sashes of blue taffeta tied in back. They wore garden hats of blue tulle, and each carried a cascade bouquet of white gladiolus, blue delphinium and ivy. The flower girl, Patricia Dooley, was similarly dressed, with bouquet like the bridesmaids', but her headdress was also fashioned of the flowers. The bride's mother, Mrs. Scott, wore a gown of chiffon print in white and shades of blue, with white accessories, with corsage of yellow tea roses. Mrs. Read, mother of the groom, chose a dress of blue lace, her accessories being of white, and her corsage also of yellow tea roses. At the reception guests were present from Vermont, New Hampshire, Martha's Vineyard, Walpole, Billrica, Brockton and surrounding towns. The young couple received a cablegram of congratulation from the bride's aunt, Mrs. Paul Fleurie, of Paris, France. Numbered among the guests were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Leon Marshall of Concord, N.H., and the groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Florence MacCurrah of West Bridgewater. All three wore corsages of pink roses. A musical program was enjoyed throughout the ceremony, an organ being installed in the garden, with Mrs. Joan Wedge serving as organist. A large wedding cake centered the serving table, and assisted by a group of friends who served the catered refreshments, this was cut and distributed by the bride to her guests. Miss Pauline Cardoza of North Easton, a close friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The couple left on a wedding trip of two weeks to Niagra Falls and Canada, and upon their return will take up residence in East Bridgewater. For traveling, Mrs. Read chose a dress of yellow shantung silk, topped with white wool coat, yellow cloche, and she wore an orchid. The bride graduated from Oliver Ames High School, Easton, with the class of '55, and is employed in the engineering department of the local telephone company. She is an attendant at Pearl Street church, where she serves as a Sunday school teacher. Mr. Read attended West Bridgewater schools and is a graduate of Bristol County Agricultural school at Segregansett. Following his graduation he served two years in the U.S. Army, and is employed as a lineman by the telephone company. Thursday evening fellow employes tendered the bride a surprise miscellaneous shower at a Campello inn, where she went as a guest at a lobster dinner, and was greeted by 50 of her co-workers. Following the opening of gifts, a happy evening was enjoyed. Enjoying the evening were Mary Stoddard, Ann Reardon, Ann Wells, Pat Spaulding, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Robinson, Nancy Coleman, June Fossella, Virginia White, Irene Milutis, Margaret Pomeroy, Valerie Bishop, Lois Palmer, Sheila Burke, Ann Ahlborg, Lorraine Smith, Sybil Allison, Phyllis Asci, Mary parker, Gloria DeLakosi, Bertha Abreu, Barbara Roderick, Alice Laliberte, Bunny Hanishold, Ruth Sullivan, Elaine Lunden, Mary Curry, Lorraine Provost, Beverly Dayton, Olga Reid, Lorraine Lenevack, Nancy Stagliano, Barbara Mahn, Mary DeMarchi, Jane Henderick, Marie Gillis, Phyllis Alexander, Mary Lane, Ronnie McCluskey, Velma Wessa, Doris Sylvester, Louise Gillis, Ethel Wood, Anne Donovan, Evelyn Martin, Mary Mahoney, Lorraine Barcevicz, Dotty Holbrook, Marie Newman, and the guest of honor, Miss Barbara Holbrook. At the close of working hours on Friday, the entire office force at the South Main street building of the telephone company presented the bride with a coffee table and lamps.

Three persons were injured shortly before 6:30 PM Saturday when two cars collided at North Montello and East Ashland Streets. Treated at the Brockton Hospital were: Richard Raynard, 23, 977 North Main Street, passenger in one car, suffering from a cut head; Mary C Toma, 289 South Artery, Quincy, driver of another machine, broken tooth and bruised forehead, and Hazel Champlin, 57, 56 Linfield Street, Holbrook, a passenger in the Toma car, injured right side, for which she was X-rayed. Police reported that Ralph I Raynard, 26, 977 North Main Street, was driving south on North Montello Street. He told police as he came upon the intersection, the car driven by Mary Toma came out of East Ashland street headed west. The cars collided at the intersection, with the impact spinning Raynard's car across the roadway into the west end of East Ashland Street. Police said that the driver of the other car said she did not remember what happened. The left front of the Raynard car was damaged and the right side of the Toma car. Both were towed away. Patrolmen Casey and Upton took Raynard to the hospital and investigated the accident and Patrolmen J Tamulevich and F. Lucas took the two women to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Curley, 85 Winnifred Road, Brockton, who remember the power failures of the 1938 hurricane, today obtained an old-fashioned kerosene lamp to use in case the same thing happens again, this time with Hurricane Daisy.

Four persons were injured, two critically, in a two car collision on rainswept AMVETS Expressway, near Route 104, about 7 o clock this morning. Police say a southbound car veered across the centre isle and crashed into a northbound machine. Reported in critical condition with severe head injuries and other injuries are: Navy CPO Kenneth Meekins, 36, who is stationed at Norfolk, Va. His companion, Miss Marie Aubertin, 27, of 15 Alder Street, Saugus, suffered similar injuries. They were taken to the Morton Hospital, Taunton. Miss Aubertin was admitted in critical condition and CPO Meekins was treated, then transferred to the Chelsea Naval Hospital. Meekins was taken to Taunton by Patrolman William Nicholas and Miss Auberton by Fire Chief George Sweeney. Occupants of the other car were identified as George P Wiseman, 59, of 18 Endicott Street, Norwood, and his wife, Irene, 58, who were traveling north from their summer home in South Mashpee. Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman were taken to Brockton Hospital by Firefighter Charles Doyle in a police cruiser. Mrs. Wiseman was admitted to Brockton Hospital for multiple contusions, abrasions and lacerations and for observation. Her condition is listed fairly good. Her husband was discharged after treatment of chest and knee injuries. Police say Meekins was driving South to Newport, R.I., when his car crossed the centre strip and was in collision with Wiseman's. Both cars were nearly demolished and were towed from the scene. State Troopers Mahoney and Carter and Registrar Inspector Paul George investigated while Howard F Levings, Plymouth county identification officer, took pictures of the scene.

Miss Marlene Agnes Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon N, Watkins, 20 Guild Road, and Lloyd Charles Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A, Ferguson of Inkster, Mich., were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in St. Paul's Episcopal church. Rev. Daniel K. Davis performed the double ring service before an altar banked with white gladiolus. Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a charming picture in her floor-length gown of Swiss re-embroidered organdy, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, torso bodice and bouffant skirt of tiers to hemline with scalloped design. She chose a demi-crown of seed pearls and matching fabric from which fell her two-tier veil of silk illusion with hand rolled edges. She carried a cascade of white pompons with pink center. Miss Linda Watkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a danseuse length gown of imported white organdy embroidered with pink and blue, and styled with a bateau neckline and skirt detailed with a border design. She wore a matching demi-cap fluted with a tulle brim, trimmed with white taffeta. She carried a cascade of pink pompons. Miss Raye Smith of Middleboro was bridesmaid and wore a gown and accessories styled identical to the maid of honor, except the trimmings on her hat, which were pink. She carried a cascade of pink pompons. For her daughter’s wedding, Mrs. Watkins chose Royal Blue silk shantung sheath, white hat, and had an orchid corsage. The bridegroom’s mother wore a beige sheath with matching accessories and purple orchid. Arnold Ferguson of Inkster, Mich., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. The ushers included: Gordon N. Watkins, brother of the bride, and Christy Badgio, both of Brockton. Mrs. Karen Johnstad was organist and Stian Mollung, soloist, for the traditional wedding music. A reception was held in the church hall, decorated with yellow daisies, vari colored pompons and greens. Guests were present from Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Worcester, Middleboro, Pocasset, Brookline, Boston and Brockton. A five-tier wedding cake made by Mrs. Thomas Grant of Newark Valley, NY was cut and distributed by the newlyweds. Mrs. Sabino G. Merra of Boston was in charge of the guest book. The couple left on a wedding trip to the Cape for one week. She wore a red plaid two piece dress with white and black accessories. The couple will make their home in Dearborn, Mich., where the bridegroom is a student at the Henry Ford Community College. The Bride is a graduate of Brockton High School and Katherine Gibbs School, Boston.

58-2060  Labor Weekend Crowd, Then and Now  September 1, 1958

Ellis Brett swimming pool, beginning its third decade of use was the holiday mecca for many out of town folks as well as Brocktonians (lower photo) but lest anyone think the crowds on innovation, they have only to compare the weekend attendance of Sunday and Monday with that of 20 years ago, too photo. The bath-house, then, was just being completed, and the trees at the right had not been planted.

Among more than a score of new teachers at Brockton High School were four who are themselves graduates of BHS, being greeted above by Miss Bernice Sylvester, Dean of girls, and Dr. Ralph S Frellick, headmaster. Left to right, besides Miss Sylvester and Dr, Frellick, are Joanne P Trojano, 271 Grove Street, teacher of chemistry, BHS 1952; John D Riordan, 210 Green Street, Abington, English, BHS 1949; Harry Sharkley, 51 Wilmington Street, mathematics, BHS 1935; and Marie DiMarzio, 53 Taylor Avenue, commercial department, BHS 1946.

Some nine signs, erected under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club of Brockton, declare this a "no fix city" and urge motorists to drive sanely. Noting this particular billboard, on North Montello street opposite the Montello swimming pool, are Alan R. Bechtel, seven, of 100 Locust Street; Matthew E. Zemaitis, 11, of 1028 North Montello Street; and Ronald G. Bechtel, 11, of 100 Locust Street.
Hanover- An Onset woman suffered facial injuries requiring stitches, when the car she was operating was involved in a collision at the intersection of Webster and Whiting streets shortly after 6 Tuesday evening and left roadway, climbed a stonewall and skidded along its top for several feet. According to police, the injured operator was Mrs. Lilla Norris, 4, of Glendale road, Onset. The operator of the second car involved was Mrs. Margaret M. Holmes of 48 Davis Street, North Hanover. Mrs. Holmes was shaken up and suffered slight injuries. Both were taken to South Shore Hospital in the police cruiser-ambulance. Mrs. Norris received treatment for multiple lacerations of the forehead and ear. Both were released. The accident was investigated by Police Chief John W. Stoddard, Patrolmen Russell Beard and David Zwicker. The cars were badly damaged and had to be towed away.

Extraordinary interest in Brockton fair prompted 13-year-old Bruce S. Davis, 88 Thorny Lea Terrace, to try entering the wrong way via the Belmont Street exit gate late Friday afternoon with the result he became caught, but good, in the turnstile. Although police were called, it was only after the continued efforts of Brockton Fair Vice-Pres. Carlton K. Holmes and Fair employee Justin Buckley that Bruce was released, happy and less interested, this time, in getting in. Photos show Davis wedged between bars as Costigan tried to move them; the bars are pried apart for him to loosen himself and move upward and outward; freed at last.

Jeanne F. Walker is Church Bride of R.B. Freitas

September 6, 1958

Five sisters and a brother of the bride were members of the wedding party when Jeanne Frances Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Walker of 1564 Main Street, become the bride of Richard Borfes Freitas of 56 Charles Street, West Bridgewater, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Freitas in a ceremony performed Saturday after noon at 2 o'clock at St. Margaret's church. Rev. William J. McConnell affidavit at the double right service, for which the altar was decorated with white gladiolus and pompons. Miss Joan Walker attended her sister as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids included another sister, Miss Judy Walker: Miss Linda Florio, niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Ricci, all of Brockton. Serving as junior bridesmaids were Kathy Walker of this city, niece of the bride, and Joanne Freitas of West Bridgewater. Another sister of the bride, Susan Walker, was flower girl, and their cousin, Michael McMillan of Holbrook, was ring bearer. The bridegrooms brother, William Freitas of West Bridgewater, performed the duties of best man, and the ushers were Thomas Walker of this city, brother of the bride; Richard Davenport of this city and Joseph Leandres of Bridgewater, cousin of the bridegroom. Mrs. William McGowan, church organist, played music for the rites, and the soloist was Mrs. Josiphine Bruno Murphy. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lovely gown of white imported French point d'espirit, designed with jeweled Sabrina neckline, long wristpoint sleeves, fitted bodice of chantilly lace and full skirt of Chantilly lace with court train. Her veil of silk illusion was caught to a tiara of matching lace trimmed with pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a prayerbook with white roses and stephanotis. All the bridal attendants wore identically styled gowns of taffeta, fashioned with scalloped neckline, balloon skirt and large bow in back. The maid of honor was dressed in blue, the bridesmaids, rose; the junior bridesmaids, aqua and yellow, and the flower girl in pink. They carried colonial boquets of all shades and pompons. Mrs. Walker, mother of the bride, wore an aqua dress with black velvet accessories and a corsage of pink tea roses. Miss Ann Freitas of West Bridgewater, sister of the bridegroom, wore a pink dress with pale green accessories and a corsage of pink tea roses. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Enterprise Hall. Special guests were the bride’s maternal grandmother Mrs. Effie Murray of Holbrook, and her paternal grandfather, Samuel Walker, of this city. Miss Donna McMillan of Holbrook, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Freitas left on a two-week wedding trip to Canada, the bride attired in a light brown tweed suit with rust accessories and a corsage of white roses. The couple will reside in West Bridgewater. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High School and is employed as a bookkeeper at the Brockton-Taunton Gas Co. office. Mr. Freitas attended West Bridgewater High School and is employed by the Furnwood Corp. of Bridgewater as a cabinet worker.

Robert N. Holt, 20, of 334 North Montello Street, received a broken right leg, when the motorcycle he was riding skidded on the wet road and collided with a car Wednesday afternoon. Police said that Holt's motorcycle was coming out of Lebanon Street and collided with a car on North Main Street, operated by Kenneth P. Willette, 15 East Main Street. The motorcycle went under the car, but Holt was thrown clear, fracturing his limb. He was taken to the Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen Seaquist and Lucas, and Patrolmen Zullas and Ruggiero investigated. Holt had just returned from Boston, where he registered as a student at Wentworth Institute. He was due to start class on Thursday.

Trio Hurt as Cars Collide; Other Mishap

September 13, 1958

Two adults and a child were taken to hospitals by police early Saturday afternoon in two ambulances after a collision of two cars on North Montello street near Avon line. All were discharged after receiving treatment for shock and a bad shaking up. Operators of the cars involved were identified by Patrolman Galen E. Dean, who investigated, as Mrs. Barbara Elliott, 32, of 675 Montello street and Charles M. Watkins, 52, of 53 Bolivar street, Canton. Patrolman Dion and Sharon who answered an emergency call took Mrs. Elliott and Donna Pitts, 10, also of 675 Montello street, to Brockton Hospital. Donna, police say, was shaken up and Mrs. Elliott in addition to suffering shock and a bad shaking up, received lacerations about the faces. Watkins, who was alone in his auto and who claimed no injury, collapsed at the scene while being interviewed by Patrolman Galen E. Dean and was taken to Phaneuf Hospital by the patrolman, where he was treated for shock and a bad shaking up.

58-3117 O'Connor - Proulx Wedding

O'Connor - Proulx nuptials solemnized at St. Patrick's reception follows rites; to reside at 45 May Avenue. White Satin bows antered with flowers decorated the pews of St. Patrick's church for the wedding of Miss Terese Louise Proulx, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Proulx of 49 Mahomet Street, and Paul Joseph O'Connor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew O'Connor, 66 South Fuller Street. Prior to nuptials mass this morning at 10 o'clock Rev. William J. Riley officiated at the double ring ceremony organist was Miss Fannie Ciampa and Soloist, David O'Donnell. Miss Marianne Proulx was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Diane Castano, cousin of the bride, and Miss Patricia O'Connor, twin sister of the bridegroom. Herbert O'Connor served as best man for his brother and ushers were William O'Connor, brother of the bridegroom, G. Robert Waldron, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, all of Brockton, and Edward Crowley of South Boston, cousin of the bridegroom. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was a charming picture in an exquisit gown of taffeta and lace fashioned with sabina neckline studded with pearls and sequins, long lace wrist point sleeves with appliqued skirt terminating in a long chapel train. Her shoulder length veil fell from a matching cap of taffeta with sequins, pearls and pearl drop. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. The maid of honor wore an aqua sheath dress with overskirt of net and matching aqua cap and the bridesmaids wore gowns identical to that worn by the maid of honor with matching caps and they carried baskets of baby pompons in bronze and gold. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Proulx chose a marlin blue sheath dress with puff overskirt, matching hat and shoes and white accessories with white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a plum suit dress with rhinestone trim, pink accessories and pink orchid corsage. A reception followed the ceremony in Knights of Columbus Hall for 200 guests attending from New York, Boston, New Jersey, Holyoke, Lynn, Dorchester and Brockton. The newlyweds were assisted in the receiving line by members of the bridal party and their parents. The guest book was in charge of Miss Jerrilyn Yannone, cousin of the bride. Bouquets of flowers were the attractive table decorations and the centerpiece for the bride's table was a tiered wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor left on a two-week wedding trip to New York, Washington and Virginia and for traveling the bride wove a beige suit with mink collar, brown accessories and orchid corsage. On their return they will make their home at 45 May Avenue. Mrs. O'Connor is a graduate of Brockton High School, class of 1955, and she is a member of St. Patrick's Ladies' Sodality and Junior Woman's Club of Brockton. She is employed by an Avon concern.

Two Injured as Truck-Car in Collision

September 23, 1958

Two autos, one being towed, and a trailer truck collided on North Main Street, resulting in minor injuries to two persons and vehicle damage at 9 o'clock Tuesday night. The trailer truck was operated by George R. Nelson, 42 of 433 Summer Street, East Bridgewater and registered to Quinn Freight Lines, Inc. of 1093 Montello Street, Brockton. Two cars were ahead of him, one towing the other. The lead car was operated by Joseph B. Simmons, 29, of Highland Street, Mattapoisett. At the wheel of the towed car was Donald L. Falconeiri, 26, of 179 Cherry Street, Middleboro. Both cars were owned by Simmons Auto Service, Spruce Street, Middleboro. All three were proceeding in a southerly direction, toward West Bridgewater Centre. As reported by police, Falconeiri said he thought he could pull the Simmons-operated vehicle to the side by putting on his brakes. Instead as the big truck came alongside, the tow car collided with the right front fender. The rear car was not damaged. Simmons was taken to the Brockton Hospital by State Trooper Donald Walsh. It took five stitches to close a deep cut in his head. Fearing hurt his left arm. Both were released from the hospital before midnight. Nelson and Falconeiri claimed no personal injuries. The accident caused a traffic jam as the route is heavily travelled. West Bridgewater Patrolmen Edwin Gibson and Raymond Silva assisted; also Firefighters Howard Anderson and Peter Mahoney, as well as East Bridgewater police and State Trooper Reneaux. Much of the traffic could be rerouted by way of Willow street as the accident happened just north of the entrance. Identification Officer Howard Levings took pictures.

Three Injured

A spectacular two-car collision at Cherry and Richmond Streets sent three persons to the hospital just after 4 P.M., Friday. Most seriously hurt, Brockton Hospital officials said, was Milton Cudworth, 27, of 287 Richmond Street, Brockton. Cudworth identified as one of the drivers involved, was listed in "good condition" with head and back injuries. Ronald A. Brosseau, 18, of 20 Clara Road, driver of the other car, and a passenger in his car, Carolyn Crowe, 17, of 58 Division Street, was released after being treated at the hospital. Brosseau was treated for multiple cuts and bruises while Miss Crowe was treated for a back injury. Patrolman Charles R. Powderly said Cudworth was driving westerly on Richmond Street and Brosseau northerly on Cherry Street when the cars collided at the intersection. The impact sent both cars crashing to the northwest corner of the intersection, leaving Brosseau's car half on top of the other machine and leaning against a tree. Patrolmen Francis Frawley and John Burns and firefighters with the veterans' ambulance rushed to the hospital.

West Bridgewater - A slippery section of state road in West Bridgewater, Route 28, South Main Street, was the cause of a car-skid during the rain storm of yesterday morning, sending Mrs. Rita N. Stone, wife of Norman R. Stone, 136 Copeland Street, to Doddard Hospital for medical attention, Mrs. Stone, an expectant mother, was operating her car north on the route and reported that as she neared the intersecting of Bryany and Ash Street, a truck came out of the former and made a swing onto the main road. Mrs. Stone said she applied her brakes and went into a skid, reeling across the street and crashing the rear end and side of her car into a tree on the left hand side. A North Easton couple was shaken up when their late-model station wagon was involved in a two-car crash at Pleasant Street and Belmont avenue shortly after 5 P.M., Tuesday police said. Herbert Mackennon, 56, of 166 Washington Street, North Easton, and his wife, Marie, 59, were released from the Brockton Hospital after being x-rayed. According to patrolmen Thomas Roach and Joseph F. O'Leary, a car being driven northerly on Belmont avenue by Andrew Isoumas, 31, of 53 Yarmouth avenue, was in collision with the station wagon being driven westerly on Pleasant Street by Mrs. Mackennon. The impact of the crash spun the Mackennon vehicle completely around, leaving it on the sidewalk. Mr. and Mrs. Makennon were taken to the hospital by Patrolman Alfred Sharon and John Seaquist.

Advance Brockton Blacktopping
September 30, 1958

A Pleasant Street sidewalk and part of the road itself received a generous covering of fresh blacktop Tuesday afternoon when a truck, swerving to avoid another car, overturned and dumped its load prematurely opposite the Tashjian home at 484 Pleasant Street. The driver escaped injury.

Mrs. Arnold Hurt; Auto Truck Crash
October 2, 1958

Mrs. Doris M. Arnold, 173 Rockland Avenue, suffered a plsit lip and was taken to Brockton Hospital this morning, when the car she was driving was in collision with a truck on North Pearl Street near the Route 27 cut-off at 10:46. Her five and one-half month old daughter, Sarah and the child's grandmother, Mrs. Bessie A. MacDonald, 62 Gardiner Street, Newton, who were passengers in the back seat, were reported uninjured. Mrs. Arnold was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Seaquist and Frawley officers Roach and J.O'Leary, who interrogated the operator of the truck, responded to another call before the drivers' identity could be revealed. A crew of men from the apartment of public works was called in to clear the road of broken glass and other debris.

October 2, 1958

Mrs. Doris M. Arnold, 173 Rockland Avenue, suffered a split lip and was taken to Brockton Hospital this morning, when the car she was driving was in collision with a truck on North Pearl Street near the Route 27 cut-off at 10:46. Her five and one-half month old daughter, Sarah and the child's grandmother, Mrs. Bessie A. MacDonald, 62 Gardiner Street, Newton, who were passengers in the back seat, were reported uninjured. Mrs. Arnold was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Sequist and Frawley. Officers Roach and J.O'Leary, who interrogated the operator of the truck, responded to another call before the drivers' identity could be revealed. A crew of men from the department of public works was called in to clear the road of broken glass and other debris.

58-3157  Two Hospitalized  September 26, 1958

A traffic accident at the intersection of Crescent and North Elm Street, West Bridgewater resulted in the two operators being hospitalized with head injuries. Occuring at 10:20 Sunday morning, policy chief Douglas Eaton reported that Robert H. Crimmins, 34, of Eastondale was driving east on Crescent Street, came to the intersection and proceeded across when his car was in collision with the one heading north on North Elm Street. Seigfried T. Zenk, 28, of 17 Hodges Street, Attleboro, was the operator of the vehicle being operated in a northerly direction. Zenk was taken to the Brockton Hospital by Chief Eaton, having sustained a concussion and also an injury to his left hip. Crimmins refused medical attention at the moment but then went to the hospital with a friend who passed by the scene. He had a bruise on his head. Both cars were considerably damaged and had to be towed to a garage. Traffic was fairly heavy and assisting Chief Eaton were Patrolmen Edwin Gibson and Raymond Silva.

58-3261  5 Cars Hit in Series of Collisions

Five persons received minor injuries, police said when five cars collided in heavy traffic on Main Street in front of the public library, at 2:30 Friday night. The chain reaction collision started when James W. Johnson, 57, of 14 Webster Street, Middleboro, temporarily blacked out while driving northerly on Main Street, police said, causing his car to strike the rear of the one in front of him, being driven by Alvin Luzon, 33, of 412 Court Street. The impact pushed Luzon's car into the rear of a third vehicle, being driven in the same direction by James J. O. Stone, 46, of 267 Ash Street. After the initial collision, police say, Johnson's car sideswiped two others that were proceeding in the opposite direction. The cars, operated by Robert Kinsella, 17, of 74 Spring Street, and Louis G. Luti, 57, of South Franklin Street, Brookville, were both damaged on the side. Johnson and his wife, Mable, 58, were treated by a private physician for cuts and bruises. Miss Sharon Nash, 16, of 18 Nye Square, a passenger in the car driven by Kinsella, received a bump on the head but did not require immediate medical aid. Luzon told Patrolmen James McClaren and John Zinkevicz that his back and neck were injured, and his son, William, 3, struck his head. Both would be treated by a physician, Luzon said.
Kingston PTA presents TV set as highlight of its meeting Monday night. At presentation, left to right, Martin J. Scully, ways and means chairman; William E. Stack, president; Mrs. William E. Connors, treasurer; Miss Helen M. Sprague, Kingman School principal; and George Moses, former president under whose administration money for the set was raised.

Dr. Jordan Honored at Whitman

Dr. Sarah M. Jordan, member of the medical staff of the New England Baptist Hospital for 34 years was honored last night, by the administration, nursing staff, and auxiliary staffs of the Baptist Hospital at a dinner at the Toll House, Whitman. Dr. Jordan, who retired from medical practice on Oct. 1, has won world renown as an authority on gastroenterology, and is one of the original founders of the Lahey Clinic in Boston. Her skill and knowledge have won Dr. Jordan honors accorded to very few women. She was the very first woman president of the American Gastroenterology Association, and the first woman to receive the Julius Friedenwald medal for outstanding achievement in gastroenterology. Among many other honors, she was awarded the Elizabeth Blackwell citation for achievement in medicine; the Radcliffe Alumane Achievement Award, and on June 8 last she was awarded the Jane Adams medal for distinguished service. Dr. Jordan will not entirely retire from what has been her life work but will continue "to write a good deal". She has just completed her second book. Those attending the dinner included, Mrs. Thomas Logan, of Mechanicsburg, Pa.; Elinor Kirkby, administrator of the hospital; Mrs. Kenneth Wakefield; Ellen Thayer- Dunacn, president of the Baptists Alumnae Ass'n; Elizabeth Gould, director, and Ethel Cameron, assistant director of the New England Baptist Hospital School of Nursing; and Una Whittaker, secretary to Dr. Jordan.

Sandra J Sabin of Mansfield is church bride of interest to many Brockton friends and relatives was the wedding last Saturday in Mansfield of Miss Sandra Joan Sabin and Lt. William E Northfield of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs Northfield is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sabin, 16 Chestnut Street, Mansfield, native Brocktonians and residents here for many years. Mrs. Sabin was the former Barbara Hill. Rev. Gordon Thompson performed the ceremony at the Orthodox Congregational church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in ivory faille taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and cap sleeves. Venetian style lace swen with seed pearls trimmed the Sabrina neckline, sleeves and peplum. Her bouffant skirt terminated in a chapel-length train. A cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses with stephanotis and garlands of ivy. Miss Judy Gail Sabin of Mansfield, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Folcik of Norton, a classmate of the bride at Mansfield High School, and Miss Mary Louise Schmetzer of Wellesley, a Garland Junior College classmate of the bride. Miss Sabin wore a gown of aqua silk organza over taffeta with a bouffant skirt caught in the hem in tiny bows of matching silk. She carried a willow birdcage basket filled with yellow tea roses, chrysanthemums and ivy, with yellow satin ribbons tied over the arm. A matching flower wreath was her headpiece. The bridesmaids wore gowns of aqua silk organza identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried willow birdcage baskets filled with blush pink tea roses, yellow daisy chrysanthemums and ivy, and wore matching flower headpiece. Miss Valerie Joan Merritt of Syracuse, N.Y., cousin of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a yellow nylon organdy dress with white lace edging on the collar and puff sleeves. She carried a miniature willow birdcage with blush pink tea roses and yellow daisy chrysanthemums, and wore a matching floral wreath in her hair. The bride's mother wore a beige silk sheath with chiddon draping of the same shade and mocha accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige chiffon dress with matching accessories. Both had orchid corsages in yellows and shaded brown. Harold L Northfield, Jr., Minneapolis, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Kent H Sabin of Morristown, N.J., Peter E and Christopher E Sabin of Mansfield, brothers of the bride, and Barton Roessler of Boston. A reception in the church vestry followed the ceremony. The couple left on a wedding trip to Quebec and Montreal and plan to make their home for the following year at Fort Monmouth, N.J. The bride a graduate of Mansfield High School, received her associate's degree from a Garland Junior College in June 1958. The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Harold L Northfield and the late Mr. Northfield, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in engineering from Mass. Institute of Technology in June, 1957. He is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity, Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, and Eta Kappa Nu. He is stationed at Fort Monmouth, in the U.S. Army Signal Corps.

Injured as Autos Crash Head-On Here

Five Brockton persons were injured in a head-on crash on Warren Avenue that snarled traffic for blocks just before 9 A.M. today. The crash occurred, police said, when one car tried to avoid a truck that was making a left turn from Warren Avenue into Park Street. Mrs. Mildred L. Joy, 55, of 12 Hardy Avenue, suffered head injuries when thrown to the pavement from the car driven by her husband, who suffered cuts on his head, were taken to the Brockton Hospital by police along with another passenger in that car, Mrs. Florence Latham, 45 of 130 Market Street. Mrs. Latham receives a neck injury, hospital officials said. Occupants of the other car involved, Relph W. Caswell, 74 of 1227 Warren Avenue, and his wife, Vina A., 75, were also hospitalized. Mr. Caswell received a knee injury and was badly shaken up, while Mrs. Caswell received facial cuts and bruises. The injured were taken to the hospital in two cruiser-ambulances by Patrolmen Joseph Upton, John Burns and Charles Powderly. Police said the crash occurred when Joy, driving northerly on Warren Avenue, swerved into the left lane in effort to avoid striking a truck making a left turn into Park Street, and collided with a car being driven in the opposite direction by Mr. Caswell. The truck, owned by McMenamy's Fish Market, 110 Pleasant Street, was operated by Daniel Callahan, 51, of 15 Warren Avenue, police said. Traffic was tied up several hundred feet in either direction on busy Warren Avenue and cars had to be detoured by Patrolmen Francis Frawley and John Seaquist. Aiding with the investigation at the scene was Sgt. Frank Tukis.
Heavy damage to stock stored in the cellar of the Matsam store, 263 Main street, occurred just before 5:30 P.M. Monday, when one end of a 275-gallon oil tank let go while the tank was being filled, dumping the whole load of oil over the cellar floor. Fire alarm box 1222, Main and Belmont streets, was sounded, and the crews of Squad A and Ladder 1, in charge of Deputy Chief John W. Kelley, took over the job of mopping up more than 200 gallons of oil. After the change of shifts Deputy Edward Burrell and a new crew took over to complete the cleanup job. The store is owned by Mat Tetelbaum and Sam Katz, who reside at 32-36 Monson street. Patrolmen John Sweeney, Ralph Clark and Joseph Upton handled traffic at the scene.

White chrysanthemums, pompons and galdiolus and blue spruce formed a pretty setting for the candlelight service in which Miss Lois Arlene Eckstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon S. Eckstrom of 58 Edson Street, became the bride of Donald Webster Sampson of Plymouth, son of Nelson Sampson of Flagstaff, Ariz., on Saturday evening at 7 o’clock at the Olivet Memorial Church. The pastor, Rev. Richard W. Bailey, officiated at the impressive rites. The bride had her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Eckstrom of West Bridgewater, as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Sullivan and Miss Zigrida Udris. Joanna Bailey and Richard Bailey, children of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bailey, served as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. Lawrence Mansfield of Kingston performed the duties of best man. The ushers were three brothers of the bride, Robert Eckstrom, Wayne Eckstrom and Kenneth Eckstrom, and two brothers of the bridegroom, Bruce Sampson and Frank Sampson of Plymouth. Soloist for the rites was Rev. Bradford Hess of Nyack, N.Y., a former pastor of Olivet Memorial church and his wife, Mrs. Hess, was the organist. They attended with their two daughters, Betty Jean and Lee. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in sparkled Chantilly lace with tulle inserts over an underskirt of tulle ruffles, en train. A crown of lace and sequins and perals held in place her chapel-length veil, and she carried a white Bible with an orchid, stephanotis and ivy. The matron of honor wore a light blue taffeta princess style gown with matching headpiece and a cascade if pink pompons. The bridesmaids were identically attired in rose taffeta with matching headpieces and cascades of blue pompons. The flower girl was dressed in light blue taffeta with scalloped overskirt decorated with pink flowers. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a basket of pink sweetheart roses and petals. Gowns of all bridal attendants were made by Mrs. Alvina Rason and Lauma Udris. The bride's mother, Mrs. Eckstrom, chose a rose lace dress with orchid corsage, and the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. John Scheid, wore a navy blue print dress with an orchid corsage. A recepetion followed at 1367 Main Street amidst decorations of blue spruce and fall flowers beautifully arranged by Miss Dorothy A Lawson. The windows were banked with blue spruce, flowers and ribbon bows. Assisting the bridal couple in the receiving line were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eckstrom, and the bridegroom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Scheid. Out-of-State guests were present from Maine and New York. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Helen Johnson, Mrs. Lena Sears and Mrs. Auzin in charge. Serving were Mrs. Eleanor Lenehan, Mrs. Lois DiLorenzo, Miss Claire Hill, Mrs. Ruth Fraser, Miss Muriel Corliss, and Miss Joyce Johnson, who was in charge of the punch bowl. Pourers were Mrs. Jennie Betts and Mrs.Emma Zeoli. All carried sprigs of a plant of Swedish merten, given by 75-year-old Mrs. Ida Lilianthal. This plant comes from Latvia and is a symbol of good luck and happiness. The couple cut a beautifully decorated cake made by Mrs. Merriel Perkins which was a gift of the bride's brother, Robert Eckstrom. Miss Judy Betts was in charge of the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Sampson left on a two-week wedding trip to upper New York State and New Hampshire, the bride wearing a blue taffeta dress, blue tweed coat, black accessories and a corasge of red roses. They will reside in a newly furnished apartment at 58 Pond Street, North Easton. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High school, class of 1952, and the New England Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing, 1956, and is employed at the Brockton VA Hospital. She is a member of the Olivet Memorial Church. Mr. Sampson was graduated from Plymouth schools and served three years in the army. He is employed at the Brockton VA Hospital and is a member of the Church of the Pilgrmage Congregational, Plymouth.

Judith Gomes, 17, of 243 Crescent Street, Brockton, was admitted to the Brockton Hospital shortly after 11 PM Friday with lacerations as the result of an auto accident near Prospect Street on West Centre Street. Patrolmen Gardner Lothrop and Charles Anderson reported that the operator of the vehicle in which Miss Gomes was riding, was Richard G Prouty, 19, of 207 Keith Avenue extension, Brockton, who refused medical attention. Other passengers in the car were his cousin, Russell S Prouty, same age of 283 Copeland Street, Brockton, who was uninjured, and Leslie Warren of Central Square, this town. Miss Warren was treated at the hospital for a knee laceration and then released. Both girls were taken to Brockton by a passing motor vehicle.

The marriage of Joanne Pacheco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pacheco of 118 Spring Hill Avenue, and Charles S. Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keith of 784 Bedford Street, Elmwood, took place Sunday night at 7 o'clock in a candlelight service performed at Central Square Congregational Church, with Rev. Harold Gustafson, pastor of the New Church, officiating. White pompons snapdragons and gladiolus in large vases decorated the altar. Lester Lane played the traditional organ music and the soloist was Margaret Inman of Bridgewater who sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Susan Pacheco of Bridgewater, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. George Goss, also of this town, was best man. Ushers were Daniel Pacheco of West Bridgewater and Harold Allen of Bridgewater. White chiffon over satin ballerina length with lace inserts on both bodice and sleeves was chosen by the bride with which she wore a fingertip length veil of illusion attached, to a tiara of rhinestones and pearls. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of blue and white pompons. The maid-of-honor wore pink taffeta, also in ballerina length with which she wore a skull cap and short veil of matching color. Her bouquet was the same type as the bride's but in pink and white pompons. The bride's mother was attractively gowned in ice blue silk in sheath effect with side panel. Her hat was of blue rhinestones and her corsage was baby orchids. The groom's mother was attired in a blue knit suit with white accessories with which she also wore a corsage of orchids. The wedding reception took place in the vestry where a four-tiered cake was cut. A buffet luncheon was served for 100 guests. Mrs. Beverly Allen, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. Guests were from Hanson, Atlantic, Brockton, Whitman, Plymouth, West Bridgewater, East Bridgewater and Bridgewater. Following the reception, the couple left on a trip of unannounced destination with the bride wearing a black wool suit, white blouse, black and white tweed coat and black accessories. Her corsage was of fall flowers. The couple plan to make their home in Bridgewater. The bride is a graduate of Bridgewater High School, class of 1958, and is a member of Central Square Congregational church. The groom was graduated from East Bridgewater High School in 1957 and attends the New Jerusalem church in Elmwood. He is employed in East Bridgewater.

Police identified her as operator of one car. A passenger in her auto, Mrs. Paula Reed, 62, of 866 Washington street, South Easton, was treated at the hospital for abrasions of the forehead and both knees, then discharged. Both were taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Roach and Sweeney. Patrolmen Dean and J. Clark identified the operator of the other car as Oliver T. Virta, Washington street, Norwell. He did not claim injury at the time. The highway department was called to clean up considerable glass in the street.

Accident photos taken for Dartmouth Shoe Co. sent to them, requested by Van Dam Motors and was taken at Van Dam Motors yard.

58-3493  Bowie and Kett Wedding  October 26, 1958

Miss Beverly Joan Kett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bentley of 405 Walnut Street, became the bride of William Norbert Bowie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Bowie of 96 Arborway Drive, East Braintree, in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at Immaculate Conception Church. Rev. Robert McCabe solemnized the marriage before an altar decorated with floral bouquets of white mums. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown with chantilly lace, of full length, with scoop neckline, long sleeves, and full skirt train. Her headpiece was a pearl crown and nylon tulle. Her bouquet was white orchid, white mums and stephanotis. Miss Anna Donovan was organist, Albert Walsh, soloist. Matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph Uliano of Canton, sister of the bride, was attired in spice velvet sheath and sash of satin, with scoop neckline. She carried yellow mums in crescent shape. Bridesmaids were Miss Audrey Perrault, Brockton; Miss Theresa Webby, Brockton; Miss Elizabeth Svagzdys, Brockton. All wore identical spice velvet sheaths, with scoop necklines, short sleeves, with sashes of satin, and matching accessories. They carried flowers of yellow and spice mums in crescent shape. Best man was Richard Bowie, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Jack Sadlier, Braintree; Jack Prudente, Quincy; Edmond Callahan, Braintree. The bride's mother wore a dress of powder blue lace and blue accessories, with tea rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a purple lace dress and coral accessories, with a corsage of coral tea roses. A reception for 150 guests from Maine, New Hampshire, New York, Michigan and surrounding towns followed at a local club. Mrs. Robert Simonds was in charge of the guest book. The newlyweds left on a two-week trip to Canada. For traveling the bride wore a brown tweed suit with mink collar, rust accessories and orchid corsage. They will make their home at 21 Kingman Avenue, Brockton. The bride is a graduate of Stoughton schools, Brockton Hospital school of nursing, and is employed in the office of Dr. Nathaniel Gould, Brockton. The bridegroom is a graduate of Braintree schools, Harvard College, is attending Harvard graduate school of business, and is a lieutenant, junior grade, in U.S. Navy.

Two Hurt in Auto Crash

Two men were hospitalized following a two-car collision on South Main Street yesterday afternoon. (Cleo D. Zerrella, 937 Centre Street, Brockton, alleged operator of one of the cars is being held at Brockton Hospital with chest injuries and a possible concussion. William Lee, 24 Dunster Road, Everett, a passenger in the other car involved, was held at the hospital with a fractured right arm. Police report others involved were: Ngon Hang Yee, 7 Blackwood Street, Boston, alleged operator, injured left hand; Roy L. Chan, 406 Massachusetts avenue, Boston, thrown from car, suffered knee injuries, and Jen Wong, Broadway, Boston, no injuries reported. The cars, police say, were going the opposite directions when they collided near the corner of South Main and Stoughton Streets, sending one of the cars onto a nearby lawn. Complete details of the accident were withheld pending further investigation by Patrolmen John Condlin and George Arey. Rev. Francis Connors of the Cardinal Spellman School, Brockton, arrived at the scene before police, assisting the victims. The injured were taken to the hospital by fire department ambulance and cruiser. Both cars were towed from the scene.

Contrary to general opinion that Jazz and Rock and Roll appeal to all young people, the record department of Brockton’s public library is finding an increasingly larger number of school children who prefer classics. Mr. Louise B Newson of the library start discusses Beethoven’s Third Symphony with Sandra L Ball, 12, of 172 Bolyston Street.

Kathleen A Meany, 14, of 14 Connecticut place, listens to a recording of LaBoutique Fentasoue.

Lee W Jacobs,13, of 86 Morse Avenue, is absorbed in hearing one of the library's best recordings of Tchaikovsky’s Piano Concerto No.1. The library has discovered that its record lending section has become almost as popular as its book department in some fields.

58-3587  Slightly Hurt as Car, Truck Crash  October 27, 1958

Two men were slightly injured when their car was in collision with the rear of a truck at Belmont and Manly Streets about 5:55 P.M., Monday. Harold Litman, 61, of 14 Poplar road, was taken to the Brockton Hospital for treatment of lacerations of the forehead and a possible stomach injury, while Joseph W. Riordan, 28 Emmelt Street, was shaken up and said he would see his own doctor. The car with Litman driving hit the rear of a truck operated by Anthony F. Curtice, 31, of 222 Thatcher Street, who had stopped to make a left turn into Manley Street. The right rear of the truck and the left side and windshield of the car were damaged. Patrolmen Arthur Dion and John Lyons investigated while Patrolmen John McCarthy and Lewis Farwell took the injured man to the Hospital.

58-3588  West Bridgewater Driver in Court  November 2, 1958

John A. Kugis, 43, of 216 West Street, this town, appeared in Brockton District court this morning on charges brought by West Bridgewater Patrolman Edwin Gibson for operating to endanger, operating under the influence and for drunkenness. At 3:50 Sunday afternoon, Officer Gibson reported that Kugis was driving his car south on North Elm street when in front of No. 202, and collided with the rear of a car operated by Louis J. Guaragna, 45, of 25 Mercedes road, Brockton, causing considerable property damage as well as minor personal injuries. Kugis was accompanied by Donald Baker, 30, of 29 West street, West Bridgewater. Baker was taken to a doctor for facial injuries. Kugis claimed a nose injury. Passengers in the Guaranga car included his wife and also Louise Guaranga, 17, and baby Joseph Campanello, 14 months old of 576 River street, Mattapan. None claimed personal injuries, though the baby was to be taken for a medical checkup. Gibson arrested Kugis and was accompanied by Officer Charles Anderson in taking him to the station. Officer John Eldridge was in charge of traffic, which was fairly heavy. He was assisted by officers William Tardie and Walter Damon of East Bridgewater. Asst. ID Officer took pictures at the scene. Kugis pleaded not guilty this morning before Judge Kupka to all three charges. His case was continued to Nov. 17 for trial.

58-3647  June Kirker Becomes Bride of Raymond Chassey in Rites Here November 8, 1958

Bouquets of chrysanthemums decorated the altar of Our Lady of Lourdes church this morning for the ceremony in which Miss Jane Elizabeth Kirker, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Kirker, 11 Frost Avenue and the late Edward Joseph Kirker, became the bride of Raymond Paul Chassey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J Chassey of 1170 Warren avenue. Rev. Vincent J Prendergast officiated at the double ring service. The bride had her sister, Mrs. Burton Jennings of this city, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids included another sister, Mrs. Christine Strong; Miss June Mannion, and Mrs. Bernard Poudrier, all of this city. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Edmund Kirker, Jr. Roger Chassey performed the duties of best man for his brothers. Ushers were Vincent Joyal, cousin of the bridegroom; William Dennehy and Charles Nessralla, all of Brockton. Miss Rose F Burke was organist for the rites and soloist was Richard Hurley. Escorted by her brother, the bride wore a traditional gown of imported Chantilly lace with Sabrina Neckline accented with sequins and pearl beads and long lace wristpoint sleeves. The full skirt was fashioned of diagonal points over an underskirt of ruffled net, ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip-length veil of illusion was caught on a crown of sequins and she carried a bouquet of orchids. The maid of honor was gowned in a royal blue velvet princess style gown. Bridesmaids were identically attired in red velvet. They carried cascade bouquets of fall-color chrysanthemums. Mrs. Kirker, mother of the bride, chose a royal blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Chassey, the bridegroom’s mother, was attired in a sage green dress with fold accessories. Both had orchid corsages. The reception followed at an inn in Westdale, attended by 150 guests from New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Montreal, Can. An orchestra played music for the reception Miss Theresa Joyal had charge of the guest book. The couple left on a two-week wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Montreal. For traveling the bride wore a beige cashmere clutch coat, red woolen dress and brown accessories. They will reside in this city. The bride was graduated with the class of 1956 from Brockton High School. She is employed by a local loan company as a secretary. Mr. Chassey was graduated from Brockton High School with the class of 1954 and is employed in Waltham as a draftsman for the government. He is a member of Club National and a communicant of Sacred Heart Church.

Hannan-O'Neil Wedding

November 2, 1958

Miss Dolores Marion O'Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. O'Neil of 143 Ames Street, and Leo Francis Hannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hannan of 46 Lowell Street, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at St. Edward's church. Rev. Francis J. Harkins performed the 3 o'clock ceremony in which two rings were used and the altar was adorned with bouquets of chrysanthemums. Miss Helen Joubert, organist and Raymond Molling, soloist, provided the wedding music. Escorting her father who gave her in marriage, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Lowell Perry as matron of honor; another sister, Miss Beverly O'Neil, and Miss Betty McGinnis as bridesmaids. John Varrieur performed the best man duties and Raymond Waugh and Gordon Provost ushered. The bride's gown of whit peau de soie was accented with appliques of lace, sequins and seed pearls. The princess skirt with bouffant back ended in a chapel train with attached bow and the fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline and long wrist point sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of sequins and teardrop and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, carnations and lily-of-the-valley. The attendants wore identical gowns with emerald green velvet bodices and iridescent mint green taffeta harem skirts with bustle bows in the back. They carried cascade bouquets of gold and orange chrysanthemums. For her daughter’s wedding, Mrs. O'Neil chose a gown of champagne satin and Chantilly lace with matching satin hat. Mrs. Hannon was attired in a teal blue crepe gown with pheasant cocque hat. Both had orchid corsages. A reception was held at a Campello inn and a four-piece orchestra provided music. Mary Hurd was the guest book attendant and more than 150 guests attended from Ohio, Connecticut, New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Florida and Massachusetts. Following a wedding trip to New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Hannan will reside in Boston. For traveling Mrs. Hannan selected a black cashmere costume suite with Peter Pan collar of white ermine and a black bolero hat with white cocque feathers. Mrs. Hannan is a graduate of Brockton High School, class of 1955, and of the Aviation Training school in Boston. She is employed as an airline stewardess. Mr. Hannan is a graduate of Brockton High School and Northeastern University. He served in Korea with the army and is now associated with a Boston insurance firm as investigator.

Seven Hurt in Brockton Crash

November 9, 1958

Two of the three cars involved in accident at West and Belmont Streets Sunday afternoon in downpour are shown as they look after crash near West Street entrance to fairgrounds. Mrs. Florence B. Leavitt of Dorchester was most seriously hurt of seven who claimed injury. Third car (not shown) was not badly damaged. She was one of seven persons injured in a three-car pileup at West and Belmont Streets at 12:45 Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Leavitt was riding in a car operated by her husband, Julian, also 50. Drivers of the other cars involved were identified as Raymond P. LaCouture, 27, of 50 Woodland avenue, both in Brockton. Those injured, in addition to Mrs. Leavitt, were her husband, left arm and head injuries; their son, Edward M. Leavitt, 23, side and head injuries; Edward's fiancee, Miss Marsha Stone, 18, of 808 Blue Hill avenue, Dorchester, bruises; LaCouture, hip injury; Frank Tartaglia, 45, of 39 Leavitt Street, Brockton, cut forehead; and Updegraph, right leg injury. All were released after emergency treatment. According to Patrolman Thomas R. Roach, a car operated by Leavitt in a northerly direction on West Street collided with LaCouture's car which was traveling east on Belmont Street. The force of the impact spun the LaCouture vehicle into Updegraph's car which was traveling southerly on West Street, and which was stopped at a stop sign. Mrs. Leavitt, unconscious at the time, was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Ralph Clark and Alfred Sharon.
Brockton Accident

Station wagon operated by Mrs. Gladys Mareeb, Boyden street, lies upside down on sidewalk at Wyman and Turner streets after crash this morning. Three persons were injured in the two-car accident. Mrs. Gladys Mareeb, 34, of 39 Boyden Street, identified as one operator; her daughter, Margaret Anne, 2; and Arthur J. Contin, 72, of 602 West Centre Street, West Bridgewater, identified as the other operator, were being examined for multiple injuries at Brockton Hospital at press time today. Hospital authorities said Mrs. Mareeb, mother of five children, has head and knee injuries, her daughter, head injuries, and Contin, head, left shoulder and hands. Mrs. Mareeb and her daughter were pinned in the overturned car and were taken out by Archie McCormack, 61 Wyman Street, a witness in the mishap. They were taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Willis and Seaquist while Patrolman Powderly took Contin. Patrolmen Burns, Roach and J. O’Leary investigated. Police were told the left front of the Contin car, traveling south on Turner Street, was in collision with the left side of Mrs. Mareeb’s auto, going east on Wyman Street. The impact drove her car across the intersection, police say McCormack told them, and it overturned. The wheels on the right side came in contact with the curbing. The car ended up on its roof, with the back laying up the steps of the First United Presbyterian church and the front against the Contin car. Squad A, Eng. 7 and Comb. 1 responded under the command of Deputy Chief John F. Kelly. Firefighters washed the gasoline away and cleaned up the debris after the cars were removed by a wrecker.

Child Hurt as Car Hit

A four-year-old Brockton boy was hurt this forenoon in a two-car collision at Warren avenue and Florence street. Russell Neudeck, 4, of 775 Montello street, was taken to Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen David J. Budreski and Galen E. Dean and was treated for abrasions of the chin and neck and for shock. The youngster, according to police, was riding in a car operated by Mrs. Eleanor L. Neudeck of the same address which was traveling northerly on Warren avenue. Driver of the second auto was identified as Mrs. Margaret E. Goozey of the 617 Plain street, this city. She, police said, was operating westerly on Florence street. Neither women claimed injury at the scene. A highway department crew was called to the scene to clear the roadway of debris from the badly damaged autos. Patrolmen Ralph J. Clark and Joseph F. Upton investigated.

58-3771  Haddad Child Dies; Hit By Car Nov. 19
November 19, 1958

Death today claimed six-year-old Pamela Haddad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Haddad of 9 Manners avenue, Brockton, as a fight to live since being struck by a car Wednesday afternoon failed. The child suffered a severe brain injury and first was taken to Phaneuf Hospital. When the extent of the injury became evident she was taken immediately to Carney Hospital, Dorchester. Surgeons performed a lengthy brain operation, starting just before 11 a.m. last Thursday. Doctors said the child never regained consciousness. Pamela was in the care of a brother-sister babysitting team when she was struck by a car on Howard street, near Chisholm street. Pamela left their home without telling her babysitters and apparently was crossing the roadway to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Doten, 239 Howard street, to play with their small children when she was hit. Police identified the operator as Mrs. Anna M. Diggins, 67 Hawthorne road, Braintree. Police say the child darted into the street from behind rubbish barrels and that Mrs. Diggins was unable to stop the car before it bowled over the girl.

58-3866  John Zotos Takes Freda Scontras of Brighton as Bride  November 16, 1958

The marriage of Miss Freda Anne Scontras of Brighton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scontras of Saco, Me., and John Zotos, son of Mrs. Callianthe Zotos of 19 West Park Street, this city, and the late Fred Zotos, was solemnized at impressive rites performed by Bishop Athenagoras of Elaia, assisted by Rev. John Zaretos and Rev. Peter Kyriakos on Sunday afternoon in the Greek Orthodox Cathedral in Boston. The 4 o'clock double ring ceremony took place in a floral setting. Traditional wedding music was played by the organist for the candlelight service. Given in marriage by her brother, Nicholas P. Scontras of Saco, Me., the bride had Miss Irene Throumoulos of Biddeford, Me., and Miss Despina Stavarakakis of New York, with Miss Frances Sacas, of Brockton, niece of bride-groom, as junior bridesmaid. Charles Theodore of West Roxbury served as best man, and the ushers included Angelo Zotos of Brockton, brother of the bride-groom; Dr. Joel Rankin of this city, Peter Coutsourides of New Britain, Conn., and George Panagakos of Medford, with Peter Scontras of Saco, Me., as junior usher, Charles Scontras of Saco was ring bearer. Escorted by her brother the bride wore a princess style gown of pure silk taffeta with lace Chantilly lace over ice blue. The bride's fingertip-length veil was caught to a Queen Anne crown and she carried ice blue tinted stephanotis with two pure white orchids. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were identically attired in princess style gowns of royal blue satin brocade with elevating front hemline, matching headpieces and shoes. The maid of honor carried white stephanotis and tinted pink orchids and the bridesmaids had cascades of pink and white. The junior bridesmaid was dressed in ballerina-length moire taffeta of blending blue shades with harem skirt. She wore a matching headpiece and shoes and carried pink cascade. Mrs. Zotos, the bridegroom's mother, wore a black silk sheath with lace top on a tan background and all orchid corsage. A reception to 220 guests followed at the Boston Club, where a wedding dinner was served and dancing followed. Mrs. Kanely Throumoulos of Biddeford, Me., had charge of the guest book. Relatives and friends attended from Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut and New York. Mr. and Mrs. Zotos left on a one-week wedding trip to Bermuda, the bride attired for traveling in a mink-trimmed black suit with white feathered hat. The couple will reside in Brighton. The bride is a graduate of Saco, Me., schools and Westbrook Junior College, Portland, Me. She was formerly was employed by NBC-TV in Washington, D.C. and WHDH-TV of Boston as TV production assistant. She is a member of the Greek Orthodox Young Adults organization. Mr. Zotos is a graduate of Brockton schools, Northeastern University and MIT. He is active in the Greek Orthodox Youth of America (GOYA) and currently is diocese councilman serving the New England area and a member of the board of trustees of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Seminary in Brookline. He is active in an instructor at Northeastern University Evening Graduate School. He currently is assistant chief of the experimental foundry branch at the Watertown Arsenal's Rodman Laboratory.

A uniformed school traffic Policewoman "saved the day" on Park street, at its intersection with Ash street, shortly after 9 this morning by diverting traffic when a car hit a pole on Park street and snarled busy Route 27. Mrs. Richard B. Schaal of Ash street was doing school traffic duty at the intersection when a car veered from the road and struck a pole just north of her post. When Stoughton police arrived she remained on the job to direct cars on a detour around the accident. The 1958 model car was owned and operated by Lionel E. LaBelle of 394 Centre street, Brockton. His passenger was Miss Doris Stone of 52 Highland street, Brockton. Neither required medical attention at the scene of the accident but said they would see their family physicians. The left side of LaBelle's car was badly damaged. The force of the car's impact snapped the pole. Patrolmen John F. Donahue and Timothy Roach of the Stoughton police department investigated. According to the report, the car skidded on the wet road surface and struck the pole.

58-3912_1  Five Escape in Crash of Autos, Truck  November 28, 1958
Five persons escaped serious injury in a mid-morning accident at north Montello and Elliot Streets today in which a truck and two automobiles were involved. Police said Mrs. Elizabeth F. Connolly, 23, and her mothers, Mrs. Arthur Frank, both of 284 Canton Street, Randolph, suffered only minor bumps and bruises and were the only persons to claim injury at the scene. Sgt. Frank Tukis identified Mrs. Connolly and Mrs. Gertrude Guildford of 100 Cohasset Street, Foxboro as the drivers of the cars involved, and Richard C. Biront, 24, of 79 Hovendon Avenue, Brockton as the operator of the pickup truck. Police say Mrs. Connolly was riding toward downtown Brockton, on North Montello Street, when her car collided with the Guildford woman's auto, which was being operated easterly on Elliot Street. The force of the impact pushed the Guildford Car backwards and into the front end of Biront's truck. The truck, owned by Edward A. Lauzon, a local contractor, was stopped behind the Guildford car. The Connolly car was forced over the curbing and into a building occupied by the Crosby Supply Co. Mrs. Connolly's two-year-old son, Ronald, Jr., escaped unhurt as did the Guildford woman, Biront and a passenger in his truck, 28-year-old Joseph Dellarocca of 47 Spring Street, Brockton.

City Woman Hospitalized After Crash

November 28, 1958

A Brockton woman is hospitalized following a two-car collision in this town this morning. Mrs. Olive Moore, 64, of 138 Bewbury Street was admitted to Goddard Hospital for the treatment of head injuries suffered in the mishap at 7:20 A.M. Mrs. Moore was a passenger in a car operated by her son-in-law, Charles E. Baker, 83 Pleasant Street, this town, which collided at Manley and Walnut streets with a car driven by John C. Banks, Jr., 42, of 39 Peterson Road, South Easton. Both Baker, 29 years old, and Banks escaped apparent injury as did another passenger in the Baker car, Donald Baker of West Street, this town. Police Chief Douglas Eaton said the Baker car was traveling North on Manly Street and the Banks auto easterly on Walnut Street when they collided in the intersection. Mrs. Moore, according to police, had spent the holiday at the home of her daughter and son-in-law and was being driven back to her own home when the mishap occurred. The Baker men were on route to work and Chief Eaton was assisted in his investigation by Patrolman Frederick Anderson and Ralph Peterson of the Easton police.

Three women, two from Middleboro and one from Stoughton, were among the eight persons killed in highway accidents in New England Sunday and this morning. Miss Grace A. Wile, 48, of Highland Street, Middleboro and Mrs. Mary A. Colson, 69, of 215 Pleasant Street, North Middleboro, met instant death Sunday morning when a New Haven railroad Buddliner smashed their car at a Middleboro Grade Crossing. Mrs. Mary E Harvey, 56, of 41 Valley Drive, Stoughton, was killed in a two-car crash on Route 138 in Canton in which her husband and four teenagers were injured. The double fatality in Middleboro raised to four the number of person who have died in accidents at the grade crossing on Miller Street. The mishap at 9:45 Sunday morning occurred just after the two women had left a store in Rock Village, where they had purchased the Sunday papers, and headed toward Lexington where Miss Wile, a kennel operator, was to deliver two dachshund puppies. The dogs, valued at $150 dollars each, also were killed. Middleboro Police Chief William E Gardiner said the two-car Buddliner, bound from Boston to Cape Cod, was traveling 70 Miles per hour when it smashed into the centre of the car. The impact pushed the auto beneath the lead car of the train, tearing loose power cables and electrical connections so that engineer Carl Schultz of Dorchester was unable to bring the Diesel-powered train to a halt. The train, instead, coasted to a stop under its own accord about three-quarters of a mile from the point of impact. Pieces of wreckage from both the car and the train were strewn along the tracks for the entire distance. Both women were killed instantly, according to Medical Examiner Dr. Sterling A. McLean who said both Miss Wile and Mrs. Colson suffered multiple injuries. Both bodies were thrown clear, one 328 feet from the crossing, the other 30 feet father along the railroad right of way. The victim's bodies were badly mutilated and identification had to be made through the clothing each woman wore. Both engineer Schultz and fireman George Craig Avon told investigating officers that the crossing lights were in operation and that the train whistle had been blown prior to the crash. Their stories were supported by two witnesses, John P Hogan of Wareham Street and Edward Thomas of Miller Street, both in Middleboro, who were seated in their cars on the north side of the crossing waiting for the train to pass. The car carrying the two women approached from the south side, police said. Engineer Schultz later told authorities that he was thrown from his seat by the force of the impact. Thus, he said, his foot was not on the brake pedal. However, when he finally attempted to stop the speeding train, the brakes failed to function because of the torn cables. Railroad officials said the train was traveling at 70 MPH but was operating under the speed limit which is 79 MPH at that point. Conductor Francis J Murphy of Dorchester said none of the 30 passengers aboard the train was hurt and, after a one-hour delay, they were transferred to another Buddliner sent from Buzzards Bay and continued their trip to the Cape. The crippled train was towed back to Boston. Miss Wile, a native of Nova Scotia and a former Milton resident, was housekeeper for George F. Choate, of Highland Street, Middleboro. The 73-year-old Choate, an invalid, is a retired telephone company employee. Miss Wile was also manager and part owner of the Von Weil Kennels at the Choate Home. She is survived only by a brother, Walter Wile, of Bridgewater, N.S., where funeral services will be held later this week. Mrs. Colson and her husband worked at the kennels. She was the mother of five children, all born of a previous marriage. She and Mr. Colson had been wed 17 years. Funeral Services for Mrs. Colson will be held in her home town, Waldoboro, Me.

The most recent fatality at the Miller Street crossing occurred almost 11 years ago, in January 1948, when William Leabron of Middleboro was sucked into the side of a passing train while waiting to pick up newspapers dropped by the train crew. Chief Gardiner was aided in his investigation into the double tragedy by Sgt. Frank A. Pierce, Jr., and Patrolman Norman E. Record of his own department, and by Registry Inspector Benjamin A Gilmore and Sgt. Elwin Dillon of the New Haven railroad police.

Five persons were injured, none seriously, in the second crash within a week at Green and Newbury Street about 5:50 Wednesday night. Treated at the Brockton Hospital were William Morin, 30, his wife, Virigina, 28; their son, Charles, 11, all of 92 Huntington Street. Taken to their homes and planning to see their own physicians, were Mrs. Florence E. Caldwell, 65, of 62 Echo Street, and Mrs. Russell Holbrook, 71, 311 Moraine Street. According to police, Mrs. Caldwell was driving easterly on Green Street and Mrs. Morin northerly on Newbury Street when the cars collided. The Morin car was driven into a stone wall at the northeast corner of the intersection and Mrs. Morin was thrown from the car by the impact. Patrolman Ralph G. Ruggiero took the Morin family to the Brockton Hospital. Mrs. Morin had 11 stitches taken in a bad laceration in her left knee and a laceration of the nose treated, her husband was treated for a laceration on the nose, and Charles for cuts about the mouth and several teeth knocked out. Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Holbrook were taken to the Caldwell home by Patrolmen John F. Sullivan and Eldon H. Ekman and said they would see their own doctors. Both were badly shaken up with Mrs. Caldwell complaining of a wrist injury and Mrs. Holbrook of an ankle injury. Sgt. John T. Flynn and Patrolman Alfred F. Urenas handled traffic at the scene while other cruisers were taking care of the injured. Squad A in charge of Capt. Michael Principe was called to wash down gasoline on the street. Both cars suffered extensive damage to the front ends and had to be towed away by wreckers. Two woman were injured in a crash at the same corner last Friday night, while numerous other accidents have occurred at the intersection over the past few years.

Santa's Workshop Firefighters' Pride

One of the city's most elaborate yule scenes is that located in front of the fire alarm building at central station, Pleasant Street, where Santa stands before his workshop brilliantly lighted in the Christmas spirit. The decoration is the co-operative effort of firefighters at central station.

East Side Fire Station Decorations

East Side Fire Station decorations for Christmas this year portray a theme of the Virgin and the Child, watched by sheep, in a brightly illuminated figure outside the station at Lyman and Centre Streets. Hundreds of passersby have already stopped to admire the work of the East Side firefighters.

Four persons, three men and a woman, escaped injury shortly after 11 o'clock Christmas morning when the auto in which they were riding, capsized after being in collision with another car at the intersection of North Montello and Elliot Streets. Willie Lee Rozier, Jr., a sailor stationed at Newport, R.I., operator of the overturned car, was assisted from the vehicle by unidentified eyewitnesses prior to the arrival of two police motor patrols and firefighters from Central station. Also aided from the upset auto was the operator's wife, Priscilla, currently residing at 17 East Main Street, and Kenneth and Elphege St. Jacques, both of 50 Boyden Street, all of this city. According to Patrolmen Powderly and Burns who investigated the accident, none of the occupants of the overturned auto claimed injury. Stanley W. Poole of 67 Allen Street, Randolph, who authorities say was involved in another auto accident a few days ago, was identified as driver of the second car, in the collision. Rozier, police say, was traveling east on Elliot Street, while the Randolph auto was proceeding in a southerly direction on North Montello street. Patrolmen Lucas and Upton were sent to the scene along with Patrolmen Burns and Powderly, but their services were not needed. Firefighters who answered an emergency call for the crash, cleared the roadway of gasoline from the overturned auto.

Miss Mary Ellen Kelleher, daughter of Mrs. Daniel L. Kelleher of 113 Green Street and the late Atty. Daniel L. Kelleher, Jr., became the bride of David Joseph Budreski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Budreski of 17 Upland Road, at a double ring ceremony Saturday at St. Margaret's church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Dunne, pastor, prior to a 10 o'clock nuptial mass. The altar was decorated with poinsettias. Given in marriage by her brother, Atty. Daniel J. Kelleher, the bride wore a pure white, silk taffeta, full-length gown with a sweetheart neckline and fitted Chantilly lace bodice and bouffant skirt with lace applique. She carried a white bride's prayer book with white orchid and stephanotis. Maid of honor for her sister was Miss Ann K Kelleher. She was attired in a regal purple satin full-length princess gown with trapeze back. Her flowers were a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Francis A. Budreski was best man for her brother. Music for the wedding was provided by Mrs. William McGowan, organist, and Miss Patricia Ann Booth, soloist. Solos included "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus", "The Bride's Prayer" and "O, Lord, I Am Not Worthy". The ceremony and mass were followed by a wedding breakfast for the immediate families at the Capeway Manor. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kelleher wore a light blue, wool crepe, empire style dress with matching flowered hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink tea roses. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a lavender and pink printed faille sheath with black accessories. She also wore a corsage of pink tea roses. Following a two-week wedding trip to New York City, for fox muff, the couple will reside at 42 Holbrook Avenue. The bride is a graduate at St. Patrick's High School and Williams Business School and has been employed as a secretary by the Brotherhood of Shoe and Allied Craftsmen. The bridegroom and graduate of Brockton High School, was recently appointed a patrolman on the Brockton Police Department.

Brockton's Mercury registered a variation of nearly 50 degrees from a low of almost zero to a high of 45 to 50 Sunday, causing situations as varied as those pictured above. At left, Walter D Phillips, 21, of 183 Washington Street, North Easton, wears winter park to brave Saturday cold; at right, four-year-old Darlene F. Jones, 364 Main Street, nonchalantly wheels her doll carriage in Sunday's comparative warmth.

Car of Stanley Frisch, 29 Dodge Road, Hyde Park, as it appeared after crashing into truck tractor on Route 138, South Easton, just north of Route 106 intersection. Easton police patrolmen Carl Palm, Walter Healey, and George Randall, and West Bridgewater Patrolman Irwin Lothrop directed traffic and handled investigation at scene.

Lemock, co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Bloom, president of the women's lodge; and Jason Silverman, legal counsel and community service director for the anti-defamation league of B'nai B'rith who was guest speaker.

Never too Old to Celebrate

William Maher, 90, of 36 Florence Street, takes the cue from his two year old great, great grandson, Chester W. Southworth, Jr., of the same address, who has double cause to celebrate New Year's Eve. It's his second birthday anniversary.

Gingerbread Winter Scene, And All Eatable

Philip J. Delsi, 11, and his sister Rosemaire, eight, look over the carefully made gingerbread village made by their mother, Mrs. John V. Delsie, 620 Warren Avenue, as a winter decoration for the New Year season. What's going to happen when they take it down? Why eat it up, of course!

<td></td>
<td>A 70-year old Avon woman, Mrs. Mabel Beals of 163 East Spring Street, was admitted to Goddard Hospital Wednesday afternoon for treatment of a fractured left kneecap and chest injuries, received, police say, when the auto which she was operating, was in collision with a tractor trailer in D.W. Field Park. Force of the impact, Park Patrolman Leslie Porter state, badly damaged the front end of the woman's auto. The tractor owned by Hemingway Bros. of New Bedford was operated by Robert J. Coates, 198 Randolph Street, Canton, who, authorities say, claimed no injury. Patrolman Porter, on arrival at the accident scene which was just south of the Oak Street entrance to the park, radioed Brockton Police for assistance and Patrolmen Lucas and Upton went to the park and took the injured woman to the hospital. Patrolman Ralph Clark was later detailed to the park to assist in handling the traffic situation until Mrs. Beals' car was removed from the scene by a wrecker from an Avon garage.</td>

Michael Nowland, 76, of 11 Spring street, is in serious condition at Brockton Hospital with head injuries received shortly before 8 A.M., today when struck by an auto operated by Mrs. Alice M. Shaw, 41, of 27 Highland street, at Main street and Legion Parkway. He was at the hospital four hours before being identified. Mrs. Shaw, a night nurse at Brockton Hospital, was on her way home from duty when the accident occurred. According to Patrolmen Burns and Powdery, who investigated, the nurse’s auto was crossing Main street from Centre street when a car came out of the southbound lane of Legion Parkway onto Main street and cut in front of her as she was about to enter the northbound lane for the parkway. Police say that the victim appeared directly in front of Mrs. Shaw's car after the other vehicle passed from view and she struck him. The man, investigators say, received a bad gash on the forehead over the left eye, a cut under the chin and bruised knuckles. Only identification found in the victim’s possession at the hospital, where he was taken by Patrolmen Seaquist and Sharon, was the name Michael Nowland, a pair of rosary beads, and the name of a woman physician in Providence, R.I., who local authorities on checking learned had discontinued her practice 15 years ago and was not available. Nearly four hours elapsed before his true identity was revealed. Patrolman Edmund J. O'Leary on desk duty at police headquarters on learning of the serious condition of the victim, notified the Brockton office of the registry of motor vehicles and Inspector Ramacorti was assigned the case. Together with Patrolmen Burns and Powdery, he interviewed the man at the hospital, where attaches say his condition was growing “progressively worse.”
