Select the Returning Student Application
I understand that on-campus housing is a privilege rather than a right.

Students under the age of 18 years of age:

I understand that if I have not yet reached the age of majority within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (current contract). I further understand that upon attaining the age of majority I must present myself at the Residence Life Office for continued residency at the College. This contract will be construed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

IMPORTANT NOTE FOR STUDENTS UNDER 18: I understand that if I have not yet reached the age of majority within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the guardian must also sign this contract. I further understand that upon attaining the age of majority I must present myself at the Residence Life Office for continued residency at the College. This contract will be construed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

If you are currently under the age of 18, you may continue this application process, but must click here to download the form. Students under 18 who do not mail in a signed copy of the contract will have their contracts marked as void. Contact the Residence Life Office.

Thank You... But Wait, There's More!

Thank you for submitting your online housing application. You are well on your way to being finished with the application process. You have completed Step 1: Completing your online housing application.

You should print a copy of this page, as well as any confirmation e-mails you receive throughout the housing application process, for your reference throughout the year.

Medical Accommodation Requests for Housing 2012-2013

Housing accommodation requests for students with documented disabilities must be submitted to Elizabeth Orlando, Associate Director, Office of Disability Services by February 29, 2012. For more information, please visit the ODS website at: http://www.stonehill.edu/x24646.xml.

Step 2: Make a specific roommate request by 4:30 PM on Friday, March 23 (optional):

This process will allow you to place a roommate request for another Stonehill College student that has completed the online contract by searching through the roommate request list.
Roommate Selection

- Although it is not required, many students will opt to select roommates prior to room selection.

- The following slides will give you step-by-step instructions to guide you through this process.
Step 1 – Log back into MyHousing and choose the login option labeled “MyHousing.”
Click the “Room Selection” button in the left-hand column and select the option marked Roommate Selection”
Enter any of the search criteria in the fields below and click “Request Student as Roommate.”
From here you may continue to select more roommates OR monitor the progress of your roommate invitations. Roommate selection will remain available until 4:30 PM on Friday, March 23.
By 4:30 PM on Monday, April 2, all students will receive an email telling them their activation date and time for room selection. More instructions will be included in that email message.

Should you have any specific questions about the application or roommate selection processes, please feel free to contact the Residence Life Office at 508–565–1290.
